VI. Reports

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

The report from the district superintendents has become a tradition and it is anticipated by the Annual Conference. Paragraph 526, Section 4, of the 1976 Discipline, charges the Cabinet "with the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of a conference." This report is significant in that it marks the ending of one quadrennium and the beginning of another. We, in reality, have the privilege of evaluating our past and setting our goals for the future. This is a process that never ends but it takes on new meaning as we meet now immediately following the General Conference held in Indianapolis, Indiana.

It is appropriate that this report shall begin with a general statement concerning the conference. It was a conference that reflected the mood of our day. We have always had extremes, both to the right and to the left, in the church and in society, but it seemed to be the mood of this General Conference that the United Methodist Church has not the time, the money, nor the inclination to continue to placate the extremes. There seemed to be a mood which said: "Let us get on with our main task and the purpose of our existence." A lot was said about our missional priority for the next four years. The call for evangelism and membership recruitment was heard. Also there was the reminder that the world has hungry people who need to be fed and it is our responsibility to do it.

The Central Texas Conference leadership was very visible in the leadership of the General Conference. Bishop Stowe brought the challenging and inspiring Episcopal Address that set the tone for many things to come. Mr. Pat Stroman, our Conference Lay Leader for the past eight years, coordinated the preparation of and helped present the historic Laity Address. It was historic not only because it was the very first to be presented but because of its content and challenge. Dr. J. B. Holt worked diligently as the very efficient secretary of the General Conference and was elected to another four year term. Dr. Sidney Roberts was elected chairman of the prestigious legislative committee on The Council on Ministries and served well. The remaining delegates were in their places voting conscientiously for or against the issues as they came to the conference floor. You were served well.

We rejoice with you and applaud you for some positive steps during the year 1979. Once again the Central Texas Conference paid all apportioned items in full. This accomplishment can indicate several things. It means a certain amount of pride on the part of all of our churches and people. It is also an endorsement of our connectionalism, stating dramatically that we are not standing as individual congregations but that we are a connectional denomination working together to fulfill the hopes and dreams of our Christ and of our forefathers and mothers in the faith.

Once again our conference was among the leaders in Methodism in our support of the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority and of The Cause of World Hunger. We applaud the General Conference in setting one priority for the next quadrennium, that being the Ethnic Minority Local Church and we believe that during the next four years great strides will be taken in this regard. At the present time ethnic minorities comprise twenty-five percent of our nation's population. By the year 2000 it is estimated that this will rise to thirty-five or forty percent. But at the same time only five percent of the membership of the United Methodist Church is of ethnic minorities. We simply cannot fail to take seriously our responsibilities to reach out with the gospel of Christ to this rapidly growing population in our midst.

The fact that we have one priority does not mean that we are to neglect the many additional needs in our midst. Some additional needs to which we must address ourselves are evangelism, family life, and hunger.

It is the custom for this report to include major happenings within our parsonage families. There have been births, marriages, and deaths. All of us share with one another when anything of significance happens among our members.

The births include:

Pressley Cameron to Frank and Penny Long
 Philip Scott to Scott and Kathy Youngblood
 Sara Constance to Marc and Jan Childress
 Stephanie Claire to Uriah and Claire Stegman
 Blair Elizabeth to Robert and Gail Herzig
 James Travis to James and Teresa Olney
 Natalie to William and Gail Boyd
 John David to John and Diana Dirk
 Kristin Deanna to Reed and Cathy Justus
 Kristin Marie to Claus and Ruth Huber Rohlfs
 Angela Leigh to Jay and Sharon Horton
 Philip Anthony to Tony and Carol Hargrove
 Ellysa D'Aun to Don and Charlotte Scroggs
 Lawrence O. Clayton III to Lawrence and Janice Clayton

The marriage vows exchanged include:

George M. Matthews to Virginia Kennison
 James W. Smith to Diana Lynn Little
 Susan Kay Osada to Lloyd Edward Jones, Jr.
 Terry Joe Heaton to Judy Allyn Rutledge
 Jana Kay Parker to Richard Daniel Robertson
 Wallace Brendon Taylor to Nancy May Montgomery

We also extend our sincere sympathy to all of those families touched by the experience of death whose names have been listed elsewhere in the memorial service.

We must never take the parsonage family for granted and we are always sensitive to the special problems related to the itinerant ministry. In this regard one of the important events of the past year was a seminar titled "Stress in the Parsonage Family" that was well attended by most of the ministers and their spouses.

We appreciate the patience of our parsonage families during the time of transition and improvement in our conference insurance program and we are sorry for the inconvenience of those who have had to wait for unpaid claims. But at the same time we applaud the attitude of our Council on Finance and Administration and the Committee on Clergy Benefits who have been determined that no member of the conference would lose money because of the default of the insurance company.

We want to stress again our belief in and commitment to the connectional system peculiar to the United Methodist Church. This is not something we can take for granted because there are always forces seeking to weaken and undermine it. We do believe in change and progress but not at the expense of the basic concept of our connectionalism. No single United Methodist Church stands alone and we are grieved when we discover that minister who leaves the impression that he owns his own church and owes nothing to the great heritage that is common to us all. One of the geniuses of our church has been the appointive, itinerant system. But we are aware that there are factors arising that make the appointive process more difficult. Some of these factors of which we should be aware are:

(1) When the spouse of a minister is employed and we must take that employment seriously;

(2) When a minister owns his/her own home and because of it cannot easily move or when the church does not own a parsonage and because of that a minister cannot easily be appointed to that church;

(3) When we espouse a pluralistic theology and discover increasingly that congregations and ministers are theologically incompatible;

(4) When we proclaim the ideal and hope of an open itinerancy but are aware that few ministers and congregations are ready for it to become a reality;

(5) When we have an increasing number of clergy couples who must be appointed to the same charge or nearby parishes.

All of these factors complicate the appointive, itinerant system. We, therefore, ask for patience on the part of congregations and ministers as we proceed diligently in the process of making appointments.

According to the statistics we made some slight gains in membership during 1979. To be exact, we gained 388 in membership. However, there were slight losses in attendance in both worship and Sunday School. The loss in average Sunday School attendance was only 26 from the year before. This is significant in that it marked a trend in the right direction. The report last year showed a decrease in Sunday School average attendance of 1726 from the year before. Therefore, we observe that something is being done right in the area of Sunday School.

However, with the increasing population in most parts of our conference we confess that we are running far behind in church growth and development. Regardless of the good leadership and great gains by those who have gone before us the fact that we are not growing in numbers and reaching new people constantly stands as our judge. We therefore heartily endorse the creation of a Commission on Church Growth and Development and we urge all of the people to give your best support to it.

We also endorse report number three of the Strategic Planning Committee to this Annual Conference. The implementation of this report will be the agenda for our Annual Conference for at least the next five years. We encourage all of the ministers and congregations to take it seriously and become involved in all phases wherever it is possible to do so.

Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe has been our able leader for the past eight years. We have come to love and appreciate him and his wife, Twila. It is with sadness that we bid them farewell at this the last session of the Central Texas Annual Conference over which he will preside. But as our thoughts and emotions linger with the past our dreams lead us to accept the challenge of the future.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Cabinet
Ervin M. Gathings, Chairman

Report Of The Committee On Director Of Professional Ministries Report No. 1

Approved 6-2-80

The Committee continues to work in a consultative relationship with Dr. Ben Feemster, the Area Director of Professional Ministries, to assist him in meeting the needs of area clergy and their families. We function as a support group to Dr. Feemster through which needs of the area are brought to his attention. An additional function of ours is the evaluation of his ministry.

The Committee is delighted with the first year of this ministry and feels a deep sense of appreciation to Dr. Feemster for the manner in which he carries out his responsibilities.

The Committee on the Director of Professional Ministries, in consultation with the Area Counseling Committee, recommends to the two Annual Conferences that beginning June 1, 1980, there be only one committee to give supervision to the Director of Professional Ministries and the Area Counseling Program. We further recommend that the new committee should be of six representatives of each Annual Conference, the Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions and a Cabinet representative. In addition to these, each Conference would elect three persons to serve rotating three-year terms as members-at-large.

- 4. Continue to develop a support system for Diaconal Ministers and persons in process or persons indicating interest in the Diaconal Ministry.
 - a. Plan in 1981 at least two opportunities for interaction among the group.
 - b. Develop a plan for a more effective communication system.
- 5. Encourage more participation in continuing education events during the year 1981.
 - a. Appoint a committee to look at approved events.
 - b. Survey diaconal ministers to determine education needs.

The Committee To Study The Parsonage System Report No. 1

Tabled 6-2-80

In the 1979 Session of the Central Texas Annual Conference Bishop Stowe appointed a committee of laity and clergy to make a study of the positive and negative aspects of the local church providing parsonages or housing allowances and the effect this may have on the church, the minister, and the appointive, itinerant system. After a study of other annual conferences, input of various conference members, and opinions expressed by the committee members, there were many positive and negative points established with the following as typical examples:

A. PRO: (for the parsonage system and against housing allowance)

1. It provides quick available housing to the minister's family when a move is necessary. It facilitates the itinerant, appointive system.

2. There are no heavy and unusual financial demands on the pastor when he/she goes to a new assignment. Because of the spiraling cost of housing, the availability of a parsonage prevents unnecessary financial strain on the limited resources of the pastor.

3. In many communities the parsonage is available for the minister's family when no other housing is.

4. The parsonage system is less expensive for the church during inflationary times.

5. The 1976 Discipline assumes church ownership of the parsonage. (Par. 260, 2- (4).)

B. CON: (against the parsonage system and for the allowance)

1. There is no investment for the minister toward retirement housing. Ministers and their families are "nudged" by circumstances to provide for their later years when no parsonage is available. The housing allowance helps to provide for this security.

2. The pastor realizes an actual increase in dollar income since both taxes and interest paid on a mortgage are deductible while the housing allowance used to pay those items is not counted as income.

3. The minister's family has no choice concerning the size or type of house in which they are to live.

4. Soon after the death of a minister it is necessary for the family to move and "pull up" roots if they are living in a parsonage.

5. Because the minister pays no taxes, he/she does not feel as much a part of the community. There is no pride of ownership if they live in a parsonage.

C. CONCLUSIONS:

There are advantages and disadvantages to both systems and the diverse opinions and positions must be respected. However, at the same time the Annual Conference, because of its unique system of appointing ministers to churches and expecting there to be no interruption or delay of ministry, must assume a position and maintain a policy. The committee therefore recommends the following:

1. Every charge requiring a resident pastor shall own and maintain a furnished parsonage. This parsonage shall be in keeping with the standards set by the 1973 Annual Conference, (page 124, 1973 Journal, Central Texas Conference) and shall always be available for the use of the minister and his/her family. Such churches not now owning a parsonage shall comply with this policy not later than the next change of a senior minister for their church.

2. Whether or not the pastor lives in the parsonage or has a housing allowance shall be negotiable. In the consultative process when the appointment is being made, there is the possibility of an interview including the pastor-parish relations committee, the pastor, and the district superintendent. If the pastor desires to have a housing allowance, it shall be made known at this time and all above parties must agree. If agreement is reached and if a housing allowance is permitted, the church owned parsonage may be rented and the allowance paid the minister shall be at least the amount of the fair rental value of the parsonage less any amount necessary to "professionally" store the parsonage furniture. It shall also be understood that the same procedure must be followed at anytime during the tenure of the pastor when a housing allowance is desirable.

3. There must be the understanding that ours is a connectional system and the itineracy of ministers is a vital part of it. Therefore, in no way shall home ownership deter the itinerant, appointive system. Also, home ownership by the minister involves certain risks which the minister and family must understand and accept, such as possible loss on investment, emotional ties to home ownership, difficulty in buying and selling houses.

4. Since providing a home for retirement is high on the list of priorities, we therefore recommend that every minister begin now making appropriate investments that would make available housing for retirement. This might be done by purchasing rental property, investments with the General Board of Pensions, or other appropriate investments. We feel that if at all possible the minister must not be dependent on someone else to provide retirement housing for him/her. (Of course, there are always exceptions to this rule and we must continue to maintain superannuate parsonages.) We, therefore, further recommend that the Annual Conference provide leadership in training ministers in appropriate investments and money management.

5. Finally, we recommend that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on Ministerial Remuneration, the section on Housing, beginning on page 124, 1973 Journal, be reprinted in pamphlet form and in the place of paragraph B on page 127 include this report and that the combined reports be made available to all churches within the conference.

Commission On Status And Role Of Women Report No. 1

Review Of 1979 Work

The Commission continued to foster awareness of women in the life of the Church by informing local churches and districts of women's role.

The Commission accomplished the following goals for 1979:

1. Increased the membership to include District Representation to inform churches of our work.
2. Developed Do-It-Kits for Status and Role of Women to assist local churches in providing information for additional opportunities for women.
3. Developed and implemented a program to show our concern for divorced spouses of clergy within our conference, and
4. Increased the number of women participating in "Women in the Pulpit Month."

Cheryl W. Phillips
Chairperson

1980 - 1981 Goals

GOAL I —

Continue with visibility of COSROW to conference churches through articles and personal contact, encourage women in the pulpit.

Rationale: To educate the local church on the status and role of women and to develop consciousness of women's role and status.

Implementation: COSROW to spotlight —

1. women in ministry in Texas Methodist during women-in-the-pulpit month.
2. series of articles spotlighting women in our conference beginning in January, 1981 and running one article per month.
3. series of articles spotlighting lay and diaconal women in our conference.
4. picture display at Annual Conference 1981 of women in ministry (lay, diaconal, clergy) and brochures listing women and accomplishments.

GOAL II —

Continue contact with divorced clergy spouses within our conference and to show our concern for their adjustment to a new role and life.

Rationale: Because of the increase of divorces among the clergy and the problems of adjustment by the divorced persons to a new life style, the Commission feels there is a need for continuing support.

Implementation: An ongoing project, January — December, 1981.

GOAL III —

COSROW will coordinate with the Director of Professional Ministries in order to —

1. prepare printed resource materials regarding insurance, pension, area counseling and other benefits.
2. encourage the Director of Professional Ministries to meet with each district ministers' and spouses' group in order to disseminate and explain the above information.

Rationale: Because all clergy spouses have not been apprised of the above information, COSROW establishes this goal.

Implementation: January 1981 — Representative of COSROW will meet with Director of Professional Ministries to set timeline to implement above goal.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Report No. 1

Accepted 6-2-80

This year, 1980, marks the centennial for United Methodist Women in Central Texas Conference. It was in November, 1880, that the Rev. Ransome organized a women's missionary group in Waco. In these ten decades, thousands of women have engaged in home and foreign missionary work through fundraising, prayer, and study of world conditions as they affect women and children. They were quick to see sharp contrasts between the reconciliation and justice espoused in the Bible and the realities within cultures of their day. Binding up the wounds of oppression seemed endless, so they began to address more directly the underlying causes. Their voices were raised against the abuse of alcohol and tobacco, child labor, hazardous working conditions, and slavery, both here and abroad. They condemned as demeaning and degrading customs of foreign countries which allowed child brides, harems, footbinding, and concubines sold to the highest bidder. Here at home they advocated women's suffrage, child custody laws, the right to own and manage one's own property, and laity and ordination rights in the church. Who can measure the contributions of these visionaries who turned aside the jibes of detractors? We only know that we cannot forget those who pioneered for us.

While districts and local units are planning their own historical research and celebrations, the conference holds its centennial meeting on October 4, at Austin Avenue in Waco. It seemed fitting to return to the city of our origin and to the church which, in the past, has hosted many historical meetings of women organized for mission. It was there in 1940 that we became the Women's Society of Christian Service and where, in 1973, we became United Methodist Women. It will be a time for remembering those who are former officers, missionaries and deaconesses; for recognizing the women holding the longest record of membership; for celebrating families where several generations of women are presently members of United Methodist Women.

Ms. Thelma Stevens, who chaired the Section of Christian Social Relations in the Women's Division for many years, will be our speaker. She recently authored a book documenting our social involvement as women in the church. Her understanding of that legacy gives her a unique advantage in suggesting what our future holds. We invite you to hear this outstanding woman.

The dates for the 1980 Schools of Christian Mission are: July 23-25 for the weekday school and July 26-27 for the weekend school. Both schools are to be held here at TWC. You will find posters for your bulletin boards, registration forms, and information about child care in your recent coordinated mailing or in the display area here at the conference. Every local church is urged to send representatives who have interest or responsibility in the area of mission. These schools are now the only intensive training in mission currently available in this conference. We commend the Committee on Advance and Education as reported on

p. 25 of the Pending Reports in their intent to provide another mission event. Mission education is not an exclusively women's issue, but should reach a broader spectrum of the church, especially children.

United Methodist Women identify with the five priorities which this conference has named in the report of the Strategic Planning Committee. Leadership development, membership concerns, spiritual enrichment through private and corporate worship, stewardship, and the whys and hows of mission could well summarize our own agenda. Both we and the Annual Conference are strengthened when we work toward common goals.

Several actions of the recent General Conference serve to recognize the contributions which United Methodist Women make to the life of the church:

1. By adopting the same Charter on Racial Justice Policies which United Methodist Women in all 73 conferences adopted, the whole church is allied in the effort to eliminate racial discrimination. We affirm the goals on inclusiveness which this particular annual conference has set forth and pledge our efforts to see them accomplished.

2. By reaffirming the mandate for a local unit of United Methodist Women in every local church, the General Conference recognized the prophetic presence of the organization of women in mission and also recognized those women as the chief source of mission funds for the entire church.

3. Having been inspired and uplifted by our own research into the history of Central Texas Conference, we are pleased to note that the General Conference has initiated a history detailing the work of women in the United Methodist Church. The church, as the family of God, needs to know its genealogy. For too long historians have failed to record the contributions women have made to church and society.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE Report No. 1

Approved 6-3-80

After many hours of prayerful thinking and deliberations, the Commission on Religion and Race has devised a method of monitoring, consulting and examining ethnic minority representation, participation and programming on all the conference boards, agencies, commissions and committees, as well as the governing boards of related institutions. Commission members will be attending meetings of all the conference boards, agencies, commissions and committees to monitor their goals, proposals, purposes, objectives, and programs, to deal with the pressing issue of racism, minority group empowerment, attitudinal behavioral, and reconciliation between the races, as we move toward an inclusive conference and church.

The Harry Hoosier Extravaganza was held during the month of September at St. James United Methodist Church, Waco. This program had an emphasis on leadership development, stewardship, evangelism, education and preaching. This program while being conference-wide, was a celebration of Black ethnic diversity and heritage.

The second annual Religion and Race Consultation Workshop was held at Glen Lake Camp in December with Ms. Evelyn Fitzgerald, General Associate Executive Director, serving as the resource person. The purpose of the workshop was:

- (1) to assist district and local work area Religion and Race chairpersons understand and accept the concept of pluralism and work toward inclusiveness in all areas of the church life;
- (2) to encourage multi-racial dialogue at every level in the church through pulpit exchange, through worship services, fellowships, and study so as to encourage a better understanding of ethnic diversity and heritage in local churches; and

- (3) to develop an awareness of and sensitivity to the special concerns of ethnic minority groups.

The Commission on Religion and Race presented a "Celebration of Wholeness — Roots and Branches" in May, with emphasis on the meaning of a racial and ethnic pluralistic United Methodist Church.

Representatives attended the Congress on Evangelism in Tulsa, Oklahoma; Partners in Ecumenism in Dallas; Black Methodists for Church Renewals in Atlanta, Georgia.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR 1981

1. Each local church elect chairpersons on Religion and Race at the Charge Conference and the chairperson attend the Annual Conference or the District Commission on Religion and Race Workshop.
2. Each district(s) schedule a workshop on Religion and Race in consultation with the District Secretary of Religion and Race and the Conference Commission on Religion and Race to deal with the pressing issue of open itinerancy, racism, minority group empowerment and reconciliation between the races.
3. The Board of Discipleship initiate necessary research and funding in 1982 of the Annual Harry Hoosier Extravaganza, as a program with emphasis on leadership development, stewardship, evangelism, education, information and the development of awareness and sensitivity on the role of ethnic minority persons, lay and clergy, in the leadership and decision-making places in the conference and church.
4. ACCOM continue progress in the elimination of discrimination and racism within its organizational structures and institutions, by providing adequate representation on all boards and agencies.
5. Development of multi-ethnic staffs in changing neighborhoods to better meet the needs of the persons in those neighborhoods.
6. Each district be sensitive to the shifting centers of black population and effect congregational development to the needs for emerging minority neighborhood churches.
7. ACCOM develop a program aimed at bringing about regular inter-ethnic conversation and other exchanges to facilitate the building of bridges of trust.
8. Cabinet and program staff develop programs designed to prepare both congregations and pastors for cross-racial appointments.
9. Bishop send a "pastoral letter" to each congregation and pastor affirming his/her commitment to cross-racial appointments as a part of the regular appointment process.
10. Cabinet go on record stating that its appointments will be made in the context of an open itinerancy.
11. Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry discuss with each candidate the meaning of open itinerancy in the United Methodist Church and the Central Texas Annual Conference.
12. Each district superintendent explain the meaning and desirability of an open itinerancy to each Charge Conference, citing biblical and theological authority as well as the position of the United Methodist Church, encouraging questions, responses and open discussions.
13. Annual Conference develop ongoing recruitment programs for ethnic minority pastors, not only to meet present or particular "supply" crises, but to challenge faithful Christians to consider the call of the ministry on a continuing basis. To visit theological schools and recruit minority pastors for our conference.
14. CCYM review its projects, discover ethnic youth needs, and evaluate and discover what programs to sponsor in order to meet the needs of ethnic conference youth.
15. District secretaries of Religion and Race will monitor the progress of the local church and serve as a liaison between the local church and the Conference Commission on Religion and Race.
16. Celebration of Wholeness be continued as an annual event.
17. All conference boards, agencies, commissions and committees will be visited by Commission on Religion and Race members to monitor their goals, proposals, purposes, objectives and programs to face the issue of open itinerancy and move in the direction of commitment to ethnic inclusiveness.

18. Local congregations examine their feelings and attitudes about persons of different races and cultures.

19. Local congregations plan for joint worship services, fellowship dinners, discussion and study groups and services and community projects with congregations of another ethnic or racial background.

ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH MISSIONAL PRIORITY TASK FORCE

Report No. 1

Adopted 6-3-80

The work of the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority Taskforce has been to raise concerns with boards and committees of the conference relating to ethnic minority persons and congregations. Concerns included:

that the celebration of Heritage Sunday be centered in the ethnic diversity of our heritage and that an offering for the Advance Special be taken;

that the delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences hold the inclusion of ethnic minority persons and churches as a priority in their decision making;

that the Cabinet's statement on INCLUSIVENESS be implemented; that all committees on nomination be intentional in seeking out ethnic minority leadership and move beyond token representation;

and that the Conference continue to work for truly equitable salaries.

The taskforce recommends the following goals be continued:

- Ethnic Minority persons, lay and clergy in leadership roles and decision making places in the conference.
- Emphasis on the diaconal ministry for ethnic minority churches.
- Action on behalf of inclusiveness in all areas of the church.

TASK FORCE ON WORLD HUNGER

Report No. 1

Adopted 6-3-80

More than $35,000.00 was received in 1979 through the Advance channels for the Missional Priority on World Hunger. The greater portion of this came through the Thanksliving Offering. This was our response to a goal of $33,600.00.

We request that November 23, 1980 be designated as THANKSLIVING SUNDAY in the Central Texas Conference; that offerings for this Missional Priority be received; and, that we continue to keep the hungry of the world as a priority of our heart and action until all of God's people can close each day with enough to eat.

James E. Shuler, Chairman

TASK FORCE ON EVANGELISM

Accepted 6-3-80

Evangelism is not a missional priority in the new quadrennium. But it must always have high priority in the plans of the Church at every level and in the activities of each individual Christian. The Conference Board of Discipleship, through its Committee on Evangelism, has given emphasis to reactivation of local church members who have become inactive. Training for this work will continue. Other educational and motivational events are being developed as a part of the five (5) year plan outlined by the Strategic Planning Committee.

District, sub-district and conference agencies continue to offer proposals for ways in which we can be more effective in our evangelistic task. Your efforts have produced slight increases in total church membership across the conference during the past few years. Congratulations! This is a turnaround from some great losses in recent decades. This may be like a small cloud on the horizon, but it's a promise of the refreshing showers that can fall on us.

Our greatest need is resolve on the part of our leaders, lay and clergy alike. When we are determined that evangelism shall be a vital part of our work, in every local congregation, it will happen. We urge every church to design and develop models that are uniquely suited to community needs and potentials.

RECOMMENDATIONS TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE FROM ANNUAL CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Accepted 6-3-80

1. It is recommended that each local church become a supporting congregation of our mission families. This can be accomplished by either a gift of $1,000.00 or $3.00 per member for the smaller churches. A supporting church receives a visit from the missionary when on furlough.

2. That the investiture of the new Bishop for the Dallas-Fort Worth area be held in Fort Worth on September 21, 1980. This would begin the precedent that the investiture would be rotated between the North Texas and Central Texas Conferences upon assignment of a new episcopal leader.

3. To carry out the recommendation of the Texas Methodist Planning Commission that $20,000 be set aside in the Reserve Funds of the conference to be utilized when necessary to combat pari-mutuel betting.

4. That the office of ACCOM expand its co-ordinated mailing so both the pastor and chairperson of the local church Council on Ministries receive a copy of each mailing.

5. That each District Coordinator of Communications become a voting member of the District Council on Ministries.

6. That the Board of Higher Education and Ministry be changed to the Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry. This will give flexibility to the membership so a workable, interested group might be organized.

The various Boards, Commissions and Committees of ACCOM are ready to assist and implement any recommendations of the Strategic Planning Committee which are adopted by the Annual Conference.

Roy Grogan, Chairman

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Report No. 1

Adopted 6-3-80

The Board has the goal of conducting in the fall of 1980, a "Convocation on Ministries with the Family." This would be a one-day activity making available personnel and resources readily accessible in our area to help families cope with situations in the last part of the 20th century.

A second goal is the beginning of outreach ministries to those in the Central Texas Conference who speak only Spanish. Texas Wesleyan College has offered to begin this summer offering a crash course in conversational Spanish for pastors and laity. The cost would include only the costs of texts and materials and instructors. Texas Wesleyan College will provide the housing for the several-week course. Participants would live on campus and speak only Spanish. During the winter participants would be required to return to the campus for instruction twice a month. If this model proves successful, we hope to approach Southwestern University asking for the same type of instruction.

A third goal is the display at the 1980 Annual Conference of all the publications available from the General Board of Church and Society.

The Board of Church and Society of the Central Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church recognizes and affirms the full humanity and personhood of all individuals as members of the family of God. We affirm the responsibility of the church of Jesus Christ to minister in His spirit. Thus, as a major thrust of the ministry of our Lord was directed to persons with mental, physical, and/or psychologically handicapping conditions, we affirm the gospel imperative that we be in ministry with all persons, including those persons with mental, physical and/or psychologically handicapping conditions whose disabilities or differences in appearance or behavior create a problem in mobility, communication, intellectual comprehension, or personal relationships which interfere with their participation or that of their families in the life of church and the community. We urge the church to receive the gifts of persons with handicapping conditions to enable them to be full participants in the community of faith.

Therefore, we call upon each local church in the Central Texas Annual Conference to:

- 1) Insure the accessibility of their facilities to persons with handicapping conditions by the installment of ramps, handrails and other such enabling devices as may be needed; and
- 2) By undertaking in each local church a study of needs and opportunities for ministries with persons with handicapping conditions in the local community, with the results of said study to be reported to the local church charge conference for 1981; and
- 3) By assuming an advocacy role in the local community for programs of rehabilitative services, employment, education, housing, adequate transportation and other related concerns for persons with handicapping conditions.

GOALS FOR 1981

It is the goal of the Board of Church and Society to enable and enhance ministries of the local churches to those in our area who speak only the Spanish language. Texas Wesleyan College is offering a course in conversational Spanish, specifically for the laity and clergy of the Central Texas Conference in the summer of 1981 on its campus in Fort Worth. To encourage participation by the laity, the Board is offering scholarships for the 1981 session.

So that ministries to families can be strengthened in the future, the Board will sponsor the training of teachers in the following areas: family clustering techniques, TV awareness and ministries to mentally retarded. Two seminars on family ministries will be offered in 1981.

The Board is continuing to explore ways to be in ministry to those serving in penal institutions and to their families.

Every local church is urged to become progressively more sensitive to social issues within their own community and around the world and to address these issues in the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Councils on Ministries, Administrative Boards and individual members are encouraged to urge their pastors to address from the pulpit and in newsletters those issues on the domestic and international front which seem to be causing drastic changes in our living patterns. The world expects the church of Jesus Christ to address these issues. There are no assumptions that all Christians have to agree on these problems and their solutions, but there is the belief that it is a betrayal of Christ for the church not to confront the bloody face of history with the Good News that Christ died to save sinners. Dealing with these issues in local churches might also provide the catalyst for expressions from the local churches and individual members to the General Boards and Agencies of the church and thereby enhance communication up and down the hierarchical ladder.

Committee On Education In The Local Church And Leadership Development 1981 Goals And Rationale

1. By May, 1981, sponsor Camp Dean-Director training.

Rationale: The Committee has sponsored the Camp Dean-Director training for summer camp leaders and will continue the program in 1981 in order to insure that such persons understand their roles, what resources are available and how to recruit and train volunteer camp counselors.

2. Continue to develop and implement camping programs for families, single adults, older adults, elementary youth, and trip camps, as well as provide program subsidy for district camps.

Rationale: The Committee has the responsibility of planning and implementing conference-wide camping experiences for all age levels. We will continue to provide program subsidy for the district camps.

3. By February 1, 1981, have available summer curricula for elementary, junior and senior high camping events.

Rationale: The Committee will continue to provide cyclical curriculum for elementary, junior and senior high summer camp programs. This task involves securing and paying writers and publishing the curricula for distribution.

4. By January 1, 1981, complete the planning and scheduling of conference-wide training events for teachers of children, youth, and adults, and workers and administrators in the Church School.

Rationale: The Committee believes that effective training for teachers, workers and administrators in the Church School program is essential. The plan developed by the Strategic Planning Committee calls for such training to occur beginning in 1981.

5. By February 1, 1981, make recommendations to the Board of Discipleship regarding monetary resources to be included in the Board's budget for the purpose of training persons willing to work on conference and district levels.

Rationale: This Committee will make these recommendations in keeping with the guidelines of the plan outlined by the Strategic Planning Committee.

6. By March 1, 1981, complete the compiling of a list of persons who are qualified to provide teaching in every age-level who are available to teach in district and/or local church training events.

Rationale: This Committee will compile such a list in keeping with the guidelines of the plan outlined by the Strategic Planning Committee.

7. By May 1, 1981, provide each district and local church with a listing of all qualified instructors and printed resource materials.

Rationale: The plan of the Strategic Planning Committee calls for the publishing of a list of qualified resource persons who are available to teach on the district and local church levels. The list is to be distributed to each district and all local churches in the conference.

8. By January 1, 1981, publish and distribute to all local churches in the conference the church school evaluation tool entitled "A Discussion and Planning Guide for Improving Your Sunday School Class."

Rationale: The Strategic Planning Committee has prepared an evaluation guide for local church use. The guide is to be used in each class of all local churches with the purpose of increasing interest, participation, and tithes and offerings. The Committee has the responsibility of publishing and distributing this evaluation tool.

9. By December 1, 1981, complete a comprehensive list of church school resources and qualified instructors in every age level and conduct a workshop in each district for the purpose of providing the respective districts and their local churches with training in the areas of curriculum, resources and available teaching expertise.

Rationale: The plan of the Strategic Planning Committee calls for workshops to be held in each district to train teachers and others connected with the church school program on the local church level. This Committee has the responsibility of enabling the districts to plan and execute such workshops.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM, STEWARDSHIP AND WORSHIP

Review of 1979 Goals: LEAD Workshops were conducted throughout the Conference in 1979 with 198 persons trained to visit the inactive. Twenty-one persons have completed LEAD Workshop II and are qualified to lead future workshops.

Questionnaire went to every pastor and local church and certain district officers to gather information regarding guidance desired and/or programs needed by the local church.

Twelve persons who had completed LEAD Workshop II met in Corsicana April 16, 1979 with Dr. John Savage to discuss and refine techniques to recruit the inactive.

A one-day "witnessing seminar" was held at Westcliff UMC on December 1, 1979. Thirty-four persons completed this workshop under the leadership of Dr. John Savage and Kenneth Mitchell of LEAD Consultants.

Rev. H. F. Meier and Rev. Don Scott attended the Evangelism Conference in Tulsa, Oklahoma in January 1980.

Stewardship and Worship Programs Completed in 1979: Goals were deferred for determination and recommendations of the Strategic Planning Committee.

1980 Program

The 1980 program will be implementation of Phase I of "Membership Recruitment/Re-activate the Inactive Member."

Tentative meeting dates for 1980: July 12, 1980; November 8, 1980. Budget expense — none.

Tentative meeting dates for 1981: January 10; September and November. Budget expense: Administrative, supplies and travel — $1,000.00.

1981 Goals

Goals are being handled by Strategic Planning Committee and have been assigned to other commissions.

National Training Seminar "United Methodist Fellowship for Worship, Music and Other Arts." Six-day event in Atlanta, Georgia, summer, 1981. Budget expense — $600.00.

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND ASSEMBLIES

Review of 1980 Goals:

1. Site assessment — with site assessment done, develop a master plan.
2. Promotional tools to be developed — produce and distribute a variety of promotional tools for the Conference camping program.
3. Camp Curriculum developed and produced — in the process.
4. Alternate access to camp caretaker's home — canceled.
5. Policy on discipline — no further action.

Goals for 1981:

1. Develop a master plan as a result of site assessment.
2. Produce and distribute a variety of promotional tools for the Conference camping program.
3. Increase ethnic minority participation in the Conference camping program by recommending development and recruitment of ethnic minority leadership (voluntary and summer staff) within the Conference camping program.

TASK FORCE ON HUMAN SEXUALITY

Goals for 1981:

1. To continue training and certification of leaders. This includes certifying three junior high leaders, three senior high leaders, and three elementary leaders. There shall be at least one from each district certified.

2. To schedule a minimum of four junior high and two senior high and two elementary courses during the year.
3. To continue to help facilitate small churches or clusters of churches in planning and having human sexuality courses for youth and their parents.
4. To continue institutional membership in the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors and Therapists.
5. To work to lower anxiety within the Conference concerning courses in human sexuality through presentations to district pastors' meetings and district Council on Ministries events.
6. To introduce program of the task force to new probationary members by the end of the summer of their joining the Conference.
7. To develop a human sexuality course for married adults.
8. To study administrative relationship possibilities with the Conference office.

Rationale:

1. To feel that we are beginning to accomplish our task, the Conference needs certified leaders who are qualified and available for carrying out this act of ministry. We are also in need of certified leaders being better distributed throughout all the Conference.
2. The key to accomplishing our task is to increase participation through the weekend events. With an increased number of certified leaders, we should be able to increase the number of courses and better serve all the districts.
3. It is important to fulfill the needs of the members of our small churches. Since it is necessary to have a large group of youth in order to financially be able to have a course, we hope to have scholarship money available for the smaller churches.
4. Because of the need for knowledge of new resources in the area of human sexuality, for current training and educational methods, and the necessity to stay current with other sex educators, we feel this membership is necessary for our task force.
5. We feel that because of adverse publicity in the media and other factors, we need to analyze why there might be resistance to courses in human sexuality and address these feelings.
6. By introducing this program to new members of the Conference, the ministers of the Conference will realize personally what is available to them and to their future churches in this area of human need and understanding.
7. The General Board of Discipleship has developed a course for married adults and we recognize the need to develop this ministry for our Conference.
8. Some of the most successful programs in United Methodism are successful in sex education and have proper credibility because of their close ties to the conference offices involved. We feel a need to examine what is being done in other conferences, see how it has affected the implementation of this ministry, and make recommendations to the Board of Discipleship.

Conference Council On Youth Ministries

1981 Goals

1. There will be a new event for youth focusing on the spiritual life of individuals (i.e., prayer, devotional times and aids).
2. Youth Service Fund will show a 30% conference-wide increase over the giving of 1980.
3. Meetings for the Council and for committees will be held in a central location (i.e., Glen Lake). Committees will be organized on a geographical basis.
4. The Council will provide input to the Camps and Assemblies Committee regarding needs for recreational and other facility improvements at Glen Lake. The Council will participate with time and money in work days at the camp.
5. The Council will work to increase ethnic minority participation at CCYM-sponsored events and will support through publicity other events sponsored for ethnic minority youth.
6. The Council will continue to study the need for a full-time conference youth coordinator.
7. Methods to improve publicity and communication among members of the Council and youth groups will be implemented.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

Report No. 1

Committee On Higher Education

Approved 6-3-80

1981 Goals

1. To give continued support to our Black United Methodist Colleges. We plan to provide each local church with special emphasis on Wiley and Huston-Tillotson.

Rationale and Timeline: Will continue to let our Conference know about Black Colleges, to continue support financially of the Black Colleges. We want information to be in the hands of each local church by Annual Conference 1981. Committee members will contact the colleges for information and get that information to the conference office. Committee on Higher Education will be responsible for evaluation.

2. To encourage all churches of the Conference to make "College Bound" brochure available to all high school juniors and seniors, and to find other ways to do a better job of interpreting United Methodist Colleges and Universities of the church.

Rationale and Timeline: To obtain from local churches lists of junior and seniors to send to Texas Methodist Colleges. We want all pastors to put the brochure into the hands of all juniors and seniors by March, 1981. We need to encourage more of our youth to attend Methodist colleges. Names of juniors and seniors should be into the colleges by March 1, 1981. The assignment for leadership will be made within the committee; evaluation of percentage will be done by the committee.

3. To continue to act as liaison between the local church and institutions of higher education.

Rationale and Timeline: Our college campuses and educational opportunities must be open to all laity of the church for continuing education and for participation with the universities. This information will be distributed to the churches in the conference and completed by December, 1981. The Committee will take the leadership to see this done and evaluation will be made by the Committee.

4. To encourage gifts to the United Methodist Scholarship and Loan Funds.

Rationale and Timeline: The fund for scholarships and loans has been decreasing. To give all young people the opportunity to know this fund is available. The laity of the church need to know that the program needs its support to be effective. The article/flyer will be distributed by June 1, 1981. Information on this program needs to be in the hands of our juniors and seniors by March, 1981.

5. To enhance Student Recognition Day.

Rationale and Timeline: Through Recognition Day, we want the laity to see the need for continued financial support of our universities and colleges. Student Recognition Day is December 1981. Materials need to be distributed to local churches by June, 1981. The Committee will appoint a committee to be responsible and evaluation will be done by the committee.

6. To continue ways to relate to those chaplains within the bounds of our Conference, and those who are members of our Conference but serve elsewhere. We will continue contact through local churches and/or Sunday school classes, through personal letters, newsletters and conference news.

Rationale and Timeline: We must continue to let the chaplains know that they are an important part of the Conference. In 1981, we will appoint a member of the Committee to assume responsibility for coordinating chaplain contact programs. The Committee will evaluate the programs.

7. To encourage support of the Diaconal Ministry. Make educational and professional opportunities known to students relating to Diaconal Ministry. Help pastors become aware of the possibilities of the Diaconal Ministry for their youth.

Rationale and Timeline: We must encourage the youth to think about a place in the Diaconal Ministry. By the end of 1981, we would like to see information available in every church to the youth on the Diaconal Ministry. The Committee will be responsible for coordinating work and they will evaluate the work done.

Committee on Campus Ministry

1981 Goals

1. To establish standards for campus ministry in consultation with our campus ministers and the Texas Commission on Campus Ministry (TCCM).

Rationale: There is a dual need for effective communication between campus ministers within the Central Texas Conference as well as campus ministries across the state.

2. To monitor and evaluate present campus ministries in Central Texas Conference.

Rationale: In an effort to assist campus ministers in evaluating their work and to inform the CMC better, a form will be distributed to the campus ministers and submitted to the Committee.

3. To set priorities and strategy for location and initiation of new campus ministries.

Rationale: Campus ministry in the Central Texas Conference cannot remain stagnant. The Committee must address the issue of appropriate expansion considering the financial constraints that exist within the Conference and the educational constraints operating in different academic settings (such as urban community colleges).

4. To review local campus ministry budgets, recommending apportionment request to CF&A; to determine local campus ministry budget in keeping with such allocation of CTC funds.

Rationale: To provide thoughtful and appropriate budget allocations to support properly campus ministry in the CTC.

5. To interpret and support campus ministries in the CTC, the Task Force on Goals for Growth in Campus Ministry will be continued with the following twofold purpose: Interpretive — What is Campus Ministry? Increase student awareness of United Methodist Campus Ministry.

Rationale: The CMC must provide the leadership within the Conference in the implementation of this goal.

6. To express appreciation to local churches for their financial undergirding of campus ministry within the Central Texas Conference.

Rationale: Committee's desire to express this appreciation in written form.

7. To accomplish the above goals, the Committee requests an apportionment of 93¢ per member and figured from the total conference membership and apportioned to the districts on the decimal.

Rationale: In order to maintain campus ministry at a viable level within the Conference, the Committee determines that an apportionment of $113,000 will be required which computes to approximately 93¢ per member. This figure considers a 7% inflation figure and a 3% growth figure. Budgets for at least the past two years have only reflected inflationary increases with much "belt tightening" at the five campus ministries of the Conference.

COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Report No. 2 Proposed Structure

Accepted 6-3-80

The new Commission would be directly responsible to the Annual Conference.
The Commission will consist of ten members

(1) Selected on basis of interest and willingness to work

- (2) One-half clergy and one-half lay members
- (3) Officers: chairperson, vice chairperson and secretary and chairpersons for two committees: Higher Education and Campus Ministry
- (4) A resource and support group will consist of one youth and one adult from each campus unit with representation from both campus ministers and board members.

A term of service should begin with some present members who choose to serve with a rotate-off system to coincide with the quadrennium, with some serving two and some four years in first period.

WORSHIP AND SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT

Report No. 3

Accepted 6-3-80

Worship is central in the life of a Christian congregation.

Dr. Paul Hoon in his book, the Integrity of Worship writes, "The core of worship is God acting to give his life to man and to bring man to partake of that life. Hence all we do as individuals or as the church is affected by worship."

The task of our committee was to uncover the feelings of the United Methodist members in the Central Texas Conference about worship and how it affected their spiritual health and influenced their life's experience. Then, develop a philosophy of worship to aid and assist churches seeking to grow in the area of improving their worship.

One hundred persons participated in the survey. Sixty-one indicated they were laity; thirty, clergy; and nine gave no indication. Of the one hundred surveys, forty-three persons were from age 35-60, eighteen were under age 35 and twenty-four were sixty years or older. There were forty-six males and forty-one females who made a sex identification. Of the one hundred who replied, ninety indicated they attended services every week; and five, twice a month.

Thirty-four who responded were from churches between fifty and two hundred. Thirty-four were in churches from two hundred — eight hundred; ten, under fifty; and twenty-one, eight hundred — two thousand.

In a question concerning preparation for worship, four responses were most prevalent. (1) Prayer (2) Study the scripture lesson for the week (3) Daily sermon reading and/or preparation (4) Bible Study. This indicates a strong attitude toward preparation as a means of participating in worship. Preparation on the part of the minister/worship leader and preparation on the part of the worshipper.

This also means that in order for that preparation to take place, more emphasis needs to take place to inform the worshippers ahead of time as to the scripture, sermon ideas, etc. through church paper or newsletter.

A second question asked why persons attended Sunday morning worship. Three answers were repeated frequently: to worship my Lord and Savior, for Christian fellowship and professional responsibility. These three reasons need individual comment.

The first response seems to say that worship meets an important personal need in their religious life. This is not to be taken lightly. The expression of our commitment to Jesus Christ through worship is certainly a vital ingredient for the spiritual health of any church member. There are other ingredients that need to be weighed to measure the effectiveness of that commitment for a healthy understanding of its meaning.

Christian fellowship is a necessary ingredient in worship. To worship as the family of God involves fellowship. This also implies that interaction in worship or relational acts of worship that involve people is meaningful.

To attend Christian worship simply because of professional responsibilities is a sad commentary but may be a real one. This may be a part of the problem with worship as a spiritual experience in our Conference. Certainly a minister who felt only a professional responsibility to provide adequate worship might well be wishing he/she were not having to tackle that responsibility.

Attitude in the participation of either leading or being involved in worship is a crucial matter.

The question concerning responsibility in worship got four prevalent responses. (1) the leader-preacher, (2) response to reading of scripture (3) presence and (4) singing (both in the choir and as a congregation).

The focus on the leader-preacher and response to scripture is reflective of Southwestern mainline protestant tradition with a strong emphasis on scripture and preaching. However, presence and singing does underline an important element in worship — the opportunity for the congregation to participate. Just as in preparation, the participation of the congregation in the worship event differentiates worship from being either a production by minister(s) and choir or little more than a religious devotion tolerated. Worship at its best is a celebration of a congregation's "worth" as people of God. This is an event of participation.

What motivates you in worship and how does Sunday morning worship affect your daily activities? The three primary responses were (1) music, (2) the sermon and (3) sets pace for week. Here again we see the strong pulpit influence and the desire for music in worship. The third response tells us that many persons do use worship as a springboard to encounter life that week.

In evaluating their corporate worship, the majority of people surveyed saw their worship as traditional and informal and liked it that way. People preferred a form of worship that is traditional, and ritualistic even though informal, and this becomes a constant in persons' lives. All about them may be falling apart, or changing rapidly, but worship is a constant that they can depend on each Sunday. A rock to cling to!

Ninety-five percent of those surveyed saw worship as a teaching-learning experience. Special mention was made of using the creeds for providing more historical information about the church. It was also made mention that sermons may occasionally be used to educate. All surveys said it would make a difference if worship were eliminated. The reasons given were: the need for fellowship and "it would leave a terrible void."

After examining the survey, it appears the people in the Central Texas Conference are cautious about much change in worship at one time. Our committee recommends more Bible study, exegesis and theologizing in the local church for the purpose of developing a foundation for creative and meaningful change in worship. Such a process would enable the local church to understand and experience themselves as creators and participants in the tradition rather than simply receivers and imitators of it.

The above process represents mutual growth between clergy and laity and provides a significant foundation that will facilitate the implementation of the Annual Conference long range plan in the area of worship and preaching — thereby keeping us open to the advantages of the connectional church. Persons will then have the knowledge and skills to use the events planned as tools for improved worship at the local level.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS

Report No. 1

Adopted 6-3-80

Christians are charged to spread the gospel — to evangelize. Living in an age of revolutionary technology in the Communications Field makes available a variety of tools and facets to share the message of the Church.

The Committee on Communications and Interpretation is subject to the direction of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries with the task of improving effective communications. The responsibilities being:

1. Interpretation of benevolence programs (World Service).
2. Provide publicity for work and programs in Central Texas Conference.
3. Oversight of Conference page of Texas Methodist.
4. Encourage use of Conference Resource Library.
5. Establish stronger links between Local Churches and the Conference.

Concerns:

1. Involve all District Coordinators of Communications.
2. Compile Communications Handbook to assist Local Pastor and Local Church Coordinators of Communications.
3. Increase knowledge of the technology and potential of Cable TV.
4. Encourage consideration of more Radio placement.
5. Improve Local Church newsletters.

Evaluation of Action of Committee:

1. Representatives of this committee attended the Newsletter Seminar at S.M.U. in September 1979.
2. Representatives attended "Grass Roots Media" Seminar in Oklahoma City in November 1979.
3. Central Texas Conference Communications Committee joined North Texas Conference in sponsoring a Cable TV Workshop February 19, 1980.
4. Sub-committee preparing Communications Handbook.
5. This committee recommended to ACCOM that all Districts include a Communications Workshop in the District Training Event with the initial concentration on Newsletters.
6. Recommended to ACCOM that the District Coordinator of Communication become a voting member of the District Council on Ministries.
7. Developed job description for news editor of Texas Methodist.
8. Division of Committee into four categories to focus on: a) Conference Page of Texas Methodist; b) Interpretation of World Service; c) Resource Library; d) Using Public Media.

The Conference Page of the Texas Methodist is extremely significant in communicating the work and programs of the church and this committee re-affirmed the purpose of this page as follows:

"Based on the belief that the church has a story to tell, this newspaper is published to report the mission and work of the people called United Methodists in Central Texas. The work of the church is important whether being done in conference, district or local level. The job of this newspaper is to report the story of the work wherever that work is being done."

Due to the importance of the Texas Methodist, we encourage local churches to provide it for local officials. The current cost is $3.75 a subscription with more than 6,000 Conference editions distributed. In addition, local church subscriptions of Texas Methodist in the Central Texas Conference total 12,201 making an approximate total of 18,000.

Church Resource Systems continue to grow and expand under the capable guidance of Dr. Robert Robertson, Director. Beginning its tenth year operating out of Dallas by the Media Division of the United Methodist Communications Council, C.R.S. is owned by seven annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico. Dr. Robertson also is Director of United Methodist News Service and has organized a top notch news team for Texas and New Mexico to handle Radio, TV and Newspaper coverage at the General Conference in Indianapolis, April 1980.

The obvious key to Church growth in the future is focused on Communications. Utilizing the tools of audio, video, printed word, and the Resource Library we must make this a two-way system — listening and speaking.

Proclaiming and sharing the faith as people of God is our ultimate goal.

COMMITTEE ON RESEARCH AND PLANNING

Report To ACCOM

Accepted 6-3-80

The Committee on Research and Planning has determined five areas of concern within the Annual Conference that indicate a need for study and action.

1) There is a need for a greater appreciation for and use of United Methodist curriculum. This need is a reflection that the distinctive theology and polity of the United Methodist Church is not receiving sufficient attention in pulpit and church school classrooms in our conference.

2) There is a need for leadership development training for small churches with a particular focus on stewardship and evangelism.

3) In view of current economic trends, we should explore ways for viable congregations to exist without traditional facilities.

4) The realities of urban and rural pastorates should be studied to determine if the system of appointments could be modified to better respond to these realities.

5) There needs to be an increased emphasis in the EMLC in our conference with a particular view of strengthening our relationship with the Rio Grande Conference.

The Committee recommends to the ACCOM that:

1) Beginning in 1980, each minister shall report to the Charge Conference their plans for a study on either United Methodist theology or polity for the next year. Following the completion of these plans, an evaluation would be submitted to the district superintendent.

2) a. A Special task force be appointed to study the need for changes in tenure for boards and committees leadership, and such structural changes as may be required by General Conference Askings.

b. the need for changes in the numerical composition of the boards and committees, and

c. the potential for allowing district superintendents to devote more time to small church development.

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Committee On Advance and Education Review Of 1980 Goals

1. To promote Advance Special Giving for: a) Missional Priorities b) General Advance Specials c) Conference Advance Specials.

(Continued support for the above through the District Missionary Secretaries, Conference Coordinated Mailings and special emphasis as outlined by the Conference Board of Global Ministries.)

2. To receive applications for and make allocations of General Conference Funds for the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority.

(The Committee on Advance and Education continues to review worthwhile projects in our Conference and make grants available through the EMLC Advance Funds. The last EMLC Advance Conference Offering totaled $28,368.67 with $14,184.34 retained for use in the Central Texas Annual Conference. The Committee granted funds to the following: a) salary supplement for Nelda Barrett in the Conference Office b) salary supplement for Black church in Brownwood District c) Korean church in Killeen d) salary supplement for new Black congregation in Waxahachie District e) salary supplement for Black congregations in Temple District.)

3. To cooperate with the Committee on Communications and Interpretation in the promotion of the Missional Priorities. (See #1.)

4. To provide training for the District Missionary Secretaries in conjunction with the 1979 Mission Saturation in the Annual Conference.

(The Committee feels that this goal was not accomplished to its fullest because of a lack of communication concerning the scope and nature of the Mission Saturation. Most District Missionary Secretaries reported that their districts had adequate representation for the district presentations.)

5. To work with the United Methodist Women in a cooperative School of Christian Mission by: a) an allocation to the budget of the school, b) planning for the school, c) requesting that all District Missionary Secretaries attend the school at district expense.

(The Committee, out of its budgeted funds, granted $1200.00 to the school. The Committee chairperson has worked in the various planning sessions and all district superintendents have been urged to send their District Missionary Secretaries at district expense.)

Committee On Advance And Education

1981 Program Goals

1. To promote Advance Special Giving for: a) Missional priorities, b) General Advance Specials, c) Conference Advance Specials.

2. To receive applications for and make allocations of General Conference Advance Funds for the Ethnic Minority Local Church Missional Priority.

3. To cooperate with the Committee on Communications and Interpretation in the promotion of the missional priorities.

4. To work with the United Methodist Women in a cooperative School of Christian Mission by: a) an allocation to the budget of the school, b) planning for the school, c) requesting that all District Missionary Secretaries attend the School of Christian Mission at district expense.

5. To implement a survey of mission activities and outreach in all Annual Conference local churches (through District Missionary Secretaries) and report findings to the Conference Council on Ministries where they will be compiled in booklet form and placed in the new Mission Resource Center.

6. Creation of a Mission Resource Center for ideas for local missions.

- 7. Creation and implementation of an additional conference-wide mission event with emphasis on "How to" in local missions.
- 8. Explore possibilities of an Annual Conference mission tour for the state of Texas.
- 9. To promote local churches to become full supporting members of missionaries in the field.

RATIONALE:

- 1. One of the major functions of the Committee is making literature and other material available concerning the various Advance Specials.
- 2. It is the duty of this Committee to receive applications for the use of EMLC Advance Special funds. All applications are reviewed, priorities set, and allocations made in accordance with the availability of funds.
- 3. This is an attempt to keep the lines of communication open and materials available for the local pastors and churches.
- 4. The School of Christian Missions is currently the major tool we have for the education of the laity in missions. Therefore, the Committee makes allocation of funds from its budget for the School of Missions.
- 5. Research and Planning Committee has suggested a survey of mission and outreach activity in each local church. This material will be gathered by the District Missionary Secretary and placed in the new Missions Resource Center located in the Council on Ministries office. It will be available in booklet form to all churches.
- 6. Research and Planning Committee has also suggested a resource center for "Ideas in Mission" be created. This center shall be completed by June 1981. It will be located in the Council on Ministries office.
- 7. It is the feeling of many in the Conference that an additional mission event is necessary to further the cause of missions in our Annual Conference. Part of the rationale for this event lies in the fact that many of our laity (a large portion of the men) do not attend the annual School of Missions. This mission event will be at least a day and a half in duration and probably will be located at Southwestern University in Georgetown. It will be conducted by national and conference leaders with an emphasis on "How to . . ." in local missions. All pastors, District Missionary Secretaries, Chairperson of Missions, Council on Ministries chairpersons and all others interested in missions will be invited to attend.
- 8. This would be an educational trip by chartered bus to various United Methodist institutions throughout the state of Texas.
- 9. Local churches with memberships less than 750 may become full supporting congregations of a missionary by contributing $1.00 to $3.00 per member, thus entitling them to schedule that missionary (on furlough) to speak in the local church. They would also receive periodic updates as to the work in the field.

Committee On Church Extension Review Of 1980 Goals

1. Received and approved by ACCOM and is in the hands of cabinet — Capital Funds Drive.

2. We have devoted $15,000 yearly for a number of years as part of matching program from General Board of Global Ministry. The money has two purposes: a) supports existing churches, b) accumulate money in hopes of purchasing property for new church development — possibly buy property this year. Money is currently with the Metropolitan Board of Missions.

3. Church has begun at the black church in Corsicana. Pastor was appointed in June, 1979. He is currently serving the existing congregation and will move to new congregation when church is built. They have purchased property and soon will build. Plans are with the architect.

4. Financial support ended in 1979 for St. Barnabas in Arlington.

5. Pastor has been appointed for the church in southwest Fort Worth. Wedgwood United Methodist Church will disband by June 1980 and new church will begin worship services by March 1980.

6. At rest with the cabinet and Committee on Research and Planning.

7. No progress.

8. Toured the southwest area on Friday, January 18, 1980.

Committee On Church Extension 1981 Program Goals

1. To continue to support: a) Southeast Quadrant/Black Church development, b) Southwest Fort Worth new church, c) Corsicana Black church development, d) Watauga UMC salary supplement.

2. To be prepared to support ethnic language church development in the Central Texas Conference such as: a) Asian, b) Native American, c) Hispanic.

3. Be prepared to respond to the results of the demographic study of the Conference currently underway by the Research and Planning Committee with respect to new church development.

RATIONALE:

1. Each of the named programs represents an ongoing project which this Committee supports.

2. This goal represents a response to increased need due to an influx of ethnic language groups in the Conference such as the Killeen Korean congregation, the movement of Native Americans into Fort Worth (current population estimated at 4,000) and rising population of Hispanic through the Conference.

3. The results of this study will enable the Committee to determine the needs raised in #2 above.

Committee on Ecumenical Affairs Goals For 1981

1. To continue to support the Texas Conference of Churches and Texas Impact.

2. To encourage communication with ecumenical groups in the Conference area.

3. To obtain from the District Superintendents in the Conference their suggestions on the need for and advisability of non-metropolitan ecumenical parishes within their districts.

4. To continue to monitor the St. Barnabas ecumenical project in Arlington and lend support for the proposed congregation in South Arlington with a pastor from the Presbyterian Church.

5. To request that the Central Texas Conference continue to have the sum of $20,000 available from the Conference Operating Reserve Fund to be used to oppose any effort to legalize gambling in the state of Texas.

6. To present a report of the issues and decisions of the Texas Conference of Churches to each local congregation.

7. To participate in the Mt. Sequoyah School of Ecumenical Ministries.

RATIONALE:

The committee believes that it is important to maintain communications with other ecumenical organizations and that this can be promoted through Goals 1 and 2.

It is our opinion that it is important to have ecumenical parishes in both metropolitan and non-metropolitan areas where it is not practical for each denomination to maintain separate congregations. Therefore, we need to continue to look for opportunities to establish ecumenical churches and to learn from the St. Barnabas church. Goals 3 and 4 are intended to accomplish this.

The United Methodist Church opposes legalized gambling; thus we need to be prepared to oppose it if it is proposed. Goal 5 is for this purpose.

The churches in our Conference need to be aware of the goals and activities of ecumenical groups such as the Texas Conference of Churches. Our committee needs also to keep up to date with the ecumenical training available in our own Conference. Goals 6 and 7 are to allow us to learn and to pass on to our conference churches the information we obtain.

Committee On Health And Welfare Goals For 1981

1. To encourage each local church to designate a chairperson for Health and Welfare and each district to have such a person and to send a new list to the agencies related to the committee.

2. To encourage all districts in the Annual Conference to have a Health and Welfare Festival, in which church agency representatives may inform our people about their ministries.

3. To continue to publicize the work of the agencies related to our Committee through the Texas Methodist, especially to call attention to the times when special offerings are to be received for their support. To lift the level of giving to these agencies to more than offset the problem of inflation.

4. To encourage the inclusion of the agencies in personal estate planning.

5. To encourage all local churches to observe these special dates in telling the story of our institutions and to receive special offerings for them: April for Golden Cross; May for Wesleyan Home; November for Methodist Mission Home of Texas; December for Methodist Home in Waco.

6. To continue to support contributions to alleviate world hunger through UMCOR.
7. To make each church aware of the need to minister to the handicapped through intensive education and to provide information regarding the use of adaptive facilities and curriculum materials designed for the handicapped.

RATIONALE:

1. To provide agencies with direct contact with local churches.
2. To provide local membership education.
3. To encourage continued financial support of agencies.
4. To support long range agency needs.
5. To continue support of traditional annual offerings to agencies.
6. To remind congregations of continued need in this area.
7. To make churches aware of opportunities available to the handicapped.

Parish Development Goals For 1981

1. To continue to monitor and support the ARM Foundation.
2. To give guidance and support to the ARM Foundation in its attempt to establish a permanent fund.
3. To hold a Cooperative Ministries Seminar in the spring of 1981.
4. To emphasize Rural Life Sunday and Labor Sunday with program resources to be sent to local churches and articles in the Texas Methodist.
5. To give a Rural Church Improvement Award at the 1981 Annual Conference.
6. At some point in the future to employ a full-time staff person, either on an area or a conference basis.

RATIONALE:

1. The ARM Foundation is doing a tremendous job for our Conference. To keep it related to the Conference, we will monitor its work.
2. Since the Conference no longer funds the ARM Foundation, we have approved their plans to seek for permanent fundings and will work with them in seeking to raise those funds.
3. The needs of small churches (under 250 members) is a continuing concern for our Conference. Through a "Cooperation Ministries Seminar," we hope to strengthen these small churches and help them move beyond a survival to a "growth in ministry" mind-set.
4. These two special days are important. We will provide resources to help our local churches have relevant observations of them.
5. Another way to help small (under 250 members) churches gain in self-esteem is to provide guidelines for improvement and to recognize those doing a good job with awards at Annual Conference. The $500.00 will be divided into two or three awards for: churches with less than fifty members; churches with 50-150 members, and ones with 150-250.
6. When the Annual Conference had a full-time Director of Rural Ministry, many good things happened across the Conference. There is a growing conviction that we need, as a Conference, to pay more attention to strengthening our small churches in rural and urban areas. We are not ready to propose such a staff position now, but want to bring it to the attention of the Conference as a proposal we will be presenting in the future.

Committee On Urban Ministries — Review of 1980

The committee conducted on site evaluations of the work of the agencies receiving support. In a special meeting, Mr. Homer Trevino, the Executive Director of the Waco United Way, discussed the role of volunteers in managing charitable funds. He briefly introduced the purchase of services approach to the distribution of funds. Lastly, the committee assessed the budget requests of the three agencies.

1981 Program Goals

1. To involve individuals and congregations in Urban Ministries by providing opportunities through:
 - a. Visits to establish agencies of the church
 - b. Invitations issued to agencies to present programs in local churches.
 - c. Participation in agency projects, i.e., work camps and volunteer services.
2. To consider and administer financial requests having to do with urban ministries from the district and general church agencies and to promote funding for the approved causes.
3. To hear, at the spring meeting of the Board, the designated representatives of the various related agencies' financial requests to the Annual Conference.
4. To encourage every white church that is in a community that has a local black United Methodist Church to endeavor to establish an IC-1 Program (Inner City-one unit of time) and every black United Methodist Church to endeavor to establish a SC-1 (Suburban Church-one unit of time) Program.
5. Promote youth summer mission projects within the Central Texas Annual Conference. Coordinating those experiences with United Community Centers, in Fort Worth, with Polytechnic United Methodist Church and with Texas Wesleyan College. Other areas will also be sought out as work camp possibilities.
6. We encourage each local church to designate money in support of the United Community Centers, of Fort Worth, Laura Edwards Christian Day Care Center, of Waco, Waco Inner City Ministry. All of these are approved as Advance Specials. UCC is also a recipient of monies from the Women's Division and from the National Division of the General Board of Global Ministries.

Rationale for Agency Support

United Community Centers: UCC operates five centers in areas in need of social services which will promote self-development. Neighborhood councils participate in decisions which affect their respective programming. The budget for UCC, as others in such fields, is being strangled by inflation. The request for $12,000 barely offsets the inflationary pressures. The United Way of Fort Worth has asked for the UMC to show good faith by carrying more of the cost of operations.

Laura Edwards Christian Day Care Center: This agency provides quality child care and learning concept readiness for the children of parents with various levels of income. A sliding fee compensates for the differences in income. The request for $8,000 is a result of the termination of a national grant for such services even though the need continues. The United Way of Waco has moved to the concept of "purchase of services," rather than deficit financing. The result is a reduction of income, since monies only come as subsidies for the lowest income children, rather than an overall program support.

Waco Inner City Ministry: A three-pronged program, two of which are related to feeding the indigent elderly, constitute their agency's program. Meals on Wheels presently serves over 50,000 meals a year to the infirm and destitute. The Senior Luncheon Activity Program operates in six communities other than Waco. This basically rural program is meeting the needs of 325 older persons. They also receive a variety of other services including counselling, transportation, legal services, and periodic health screening. The third prong of their service is the Open Closet. It is a volunteer serving project providing school clothes to hundreds of underprivileged children. The request for $6,000, which is the same as for 1980, indicates a present high level of government funding, which has covered the rising costs of food and fuel.

Time-Line of 1981 Goals

By May of 1980, a list of youth summer work projects in connection with UCC should be in the hands of all pastors in the Conference. Mr. J. Douglas O'Brien is in charge of preparing the list. In April of 1980, conversations between one black and one white UMC in Fort Worth should have begun. Reverend Richard M. Freeman is in charge of making the initial contacts.

Budget requests from related agencies to be in the hands of the committee by January 15, 1981.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Richard M. Freeman, Chairperson

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES Harris And Hurst-Euleless-Bedford Hospitals Annual Report 1980

Seventy-four percent of the hospitals in the United States are under one-hundred beds. Harris Hospital-Methodist, with 628 beds, is in the top ten percent of the large health-care facilities in the nation. Also, Harris is the eleventh largest maternity hospital in this country.

The three other hospitals in the Harris Hospital-Methodist System, H.E.B. North (Hurst-Euleless-Bedford), H.E.B. South, and E.M.A.S.H. (Eagle Mountain Area Suburban Hospital) have bed capacities of 117, 95 and 22, respectively. The four hospitals have a total of 862 beds.

The four hospitals combined have a payroll of $30,706,289.00, a budget of $64,389,156.00, and a total of 2,738 employees.

In October, 1979, Harris Hospital-Methodist launched one of the most significant programs in her 50 year history — "CareFlite." This Helicopter Ambulance Service covers Southern Oklahoma, North Texas, Central Texas and West Texas. There are 1300 Specialist Physicians in this geographical area, and 91% of them are in the Fort Worth-Dallas area. Eighty-five percent of all critical care beds are in the Metroplex, and 62% of the 274 ground-ambulances are also in the Fort Worth-Dallas area. This means that CareFlite provides the most essential life-saving service to thousands of residents throughout Texas and Oklahoma.

To meet the increasing needs of emergency care, produced by both CareFlite and a growing population, our Emergency Medicine Department has entered into a $1,400,000.00 expansion and renovation program. This department offers full 24-hour emergency care, and boasts a staff of 13 Physicians, who are specialists in Emergency Medicine.

The Department of Radiology is now complete, and is one of the finest in the Southwest. The installation of the most modern equipment makes this department capable of meeting every technical need. The Total Body Scanner, Head Scanner, Ultra-sound Scanner and Real-Time Scanner have added a new dimension to the department and its tremendous diagnostic skills. This year more than 224,000 Radiological procedures were performed and, with the construction now completed, these services will be dramatically increased.

The entire Phase V program, for $12,000,000.00, will be completed within this year of 1980. This will make Harris Hospital-Methodist one of the truly great medical centers in the Southwest, superior in its diagnostic abilities, surgical skills and every known specialized medical procedure.

Our Central Texas Conference can well be proud of the healing ministry it extends to the people of the Northern half of Texas and Southern Oklahoma through the specialized services of Harris Hospital-Methodist. More than $1,500,000 per year is required to keep our hospital current in regard to the latest and most efficient technical equipment. Every gift directed to the "Harris Hospital Development Fund" is used for this purpose.

We sincerely hope that the individuals and churches of our Conference will give this need priority in their gift planning this year. These gifts are tax-deductible and will further this medical ministry of our church. Please, join us this year in putting this medical opportunity "first" in our thinking and our giving.

Department Of Pastoral Care Educational Programs Report No. 3

During the past conference year the Department of Pastoral Care has sponsored three different kinds of educational activities. First, its chaplains have been active lecturers for the in-service educational programs of the various hospital departments and schools. Second, it has offered seminarians from Brite Divinity School and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary training opportunities in "Hospital Ministry" on Mondays of each semester. For their efforts a total of seven students received semester hours credit and grades in pursuit of their Master of Divinity degrees. Third, a special eight week training program was established for pastors in the Azle community, who desire to become volunteer chaplains at Eagle Mountain Area Suburban Hospital. One United Methodist, two Southern Baptists, and one Lutheran comprised the training class of pastors, which met on Tuesdays of the eight week period.

The Methodist Home Report No. 1

Excellence For The Eighties

I. INTRODUCTION

On November 9, 1980, Methodist Home will celebrate ninety years of service to children. This will certainly be a great milestone in the life of the Methodist Church. As Administrator of the Methodist Home, I feel it is my responsibility to express to those countless numbers of people who have made this ministry possible the appreciation of the present staff and children of the Methodist Home, as well as all of those who have gone before us.

I am reminded of a fellow who was talking about travelling down the highway. He said, "I can read figures but I can't read writing; so when I am on the road, I always know how far, but not where to go." We can look at the records and see where Methodist Home has come from and how long it has taken to get where we are today, but I want to take a look where we have been in relation to where we are going and point the way for the challenge that lies ahead of us. I want to propose a program which will be known by the title of "Excellence In The Eighties."

I am not enough of a prophet to give you specific examples of what might happen as we travel the road of the eighties, but I do believe I can study the signs of the times and make some predictions about what will happen and what we must do to be a vital force in child care for the next decade. The most important element of our ministry is that it is set in the context of the United Methodist Church and the Christian faith. When I think of this heritage, I am reminded of two passages of scripture which I believe can be combined in a valid way to be our road map for the eighties.

In Matthew's gospel we read where Jesus stated that something extra would be demanded of his disciples. In the 5th chapter, verses 46-48 we read:

"For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you salute only your brethren, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You, therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

I am firmly convinced that, because we profess to be a Christian child care agency, we must maintain a quality of excellence that is second to none. The second verse I am reminded of is the last verse in the 12th chapter of Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians which precedes the famous "love" chapter. It reads, "And I will show you a still more excellent way." I am firmly convinced that the extra in child care has to be the foundation for the program of "Excellence For The Eighties."

II. TRENDS IN CHILD CARE

As we look toward the eighties, we must be aware of the trends in child care. I feel that most of you are aware of the rapid changes in child care, but many people have found it difficult to visualize just how revolutionary they are. There are still those who think of our Home as an orphanage in which children who have no families come to live. Let me list some current trends.

1. Most of the children in care do have families, and their families do not want to give them up. Very few are actually orphan or even half orphan. The majority of our boys and girls have a living parent, but for some reason their parent cannot provide for them at this time. The reasons include family breakdown, illness, alcoholism, poverty, crime and many others.
2. The turnover rate tells us that Methodist Home serves as a temporary place for a child to live. As the median age of children coming into the Home increases, turnovers are more frequent because older children do not need placement as long as younger ones. More of the older children are in the custody of the state. The state has increasingly let the child have a major part in making decisions about placement. The resulting lack of cooperation dilutes the ability of the Home to retain youth long enough for appropriate adjustment.
3. Our ministry tries to help children and families solve their problems. We recommend that a family first try to work through their problems with professional help to keep the family together. Many times, boys and girls must be removed from their homes for a period of time, but every effort is made to maintain contact with the family.
4. Fewer dependent boys and girls are being placed in institutions. We can care for 8 to 16 children in a homeunit where formerly we could manage successfully as many as 24 in a cottage. In addition, there has been an inordinate and unrealistic emphasis on "de-institutionalization of children." Most community resources have been created to deal with families and children in crisis. Youth services have been started in almost every community. Anti-institutionalism has been expounded by books such as Weeping In The Playtime of Others by Ken Wooden. A few institutions have been cited for abuse and neglect, causing reflections on all children's homes.
5. More and more moderately to severely disturbed children and adolescents are being referred to Methodist Home. There is a need for homes that can handle the emotionally disturbed, psychologically troubled and physically aggressive youth. We have worked diligently to develop special facilities and programs for the more disturbed. Additional guidance is required because of school problems, separation trauma, low self-esteem, behavioral difficulties and emotional abuse at the hands of adults. Those who have experienced neglect, deprivation, or abuse need the order and structure of group living. We also help those who have been hurt by adults and cannot bear the closeness of family living.
6. The need for institutional service for children will continue. With increasing stress on the family unit, associated with marital problems, unemployment and lack of parenting skills, there will still be a need for our services. Our program has changed and will continue to change, but I have great confidence that there will always be a place for Methodist Home to serve.

III. THREE ELEMENTS OF A PROGRAM FOR THE EIGHTIES

In the scripture reference concerning love, Paul tells us: "And now abideth faith, hope and love but the greatest of these is love." These elements have and will shape our program of child care.

1. "By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place which he was to receive as an inheritance, and he went out, not knowing where he was to go."

It was this same element of faith that launched the Methodist Home back in 1890. Little did they know when David knocked on Dr. W. H. Vaughan's door that Methodist Home would develop as it has in this period of time. It would be impossible to list all of the examples of faith in action, but when you see the beauty of this campus you realize that the buildings and programs are results of faith in action. Ours is not a pioneering world when it comes to material things, but I am convinced that excellence in the eighties will be determined in large measure by the faith which all of us have in Almighty God and in our work that puts that faith into action. We have a goodly heritage in the faith of our fathers. I only hope that our faith today will be a great heritage for those who follow us. As I read David's Legions, I am reminded of a quote "Our forebearers have bequeathed to us a great child care program through their vision and sacrifice. Let us not fail the future Davids, the on-coming generations of boys and girls. It will require time and energy to take the 'long look' and use the opportunity to serve these children to the fullest. We must realize a quality of child care that brings life over death, hope over despair, renewal over decay and purpose and direction to those who are lost."

2. A second element of excellence for the eighties will be the element of hope. The promise of a second chance and a new start in life is the foundation of the program of Methodist Home. If we cannot offer hope for a better life, then we had better stop and re-group. I am reminded of a song that our children's choir sings, "I Am A Promise." This is what it is all about. Listen to the words of hope:

"I am a promise, I am a possibility,
I am a promise with a capital "P"
I am a great big bundle of potentiality and I am learning to hear God's voice and I am trying to make the right choices —
I'm a promise to be anything God wants me to be."

3. Paul concluded by saying "... but the greatest of these is love." If Methodist Home's program is not built on Christian love, then it is nothing. The love of Christ that proved itself in action is the base for our program of child care. We have to be more than noisy gongs and clanging cymbals. We have to be servants of a Christ that changed history because of his love in action. We can change lives of children as we convey this love to them. We are dealing with human personalities, precious in God's sight and in our sight, and though many of them are damaged before we see them, it is amazing what plain, ordinary Christian love, compassion and influence can still do in the lives of those with whom we live and work. Somehow it all seems to boil down to a matter of relationships — adult to child — child to adult. Once that begins to shine through, we are absolutely certain we are making progress.

Every effort is made to hold on to the child's family for him, or her, and many times the child and this family can be reunited and make satisfactory progress. Other times this is impossible for one reason or another, but we can help the child and the family hold on to whatever strengths are there, so that the child will know from whence he came and will not feel estranged from his natural family.

Jesus in love dealt with those in need, the sick, the lame, the sinner, the troubled and those that hurt. Our Christian ministry of child care can do no less.

The Methodist Home Report No. 4

By-Laws

The Methodist Home Board of Directors approved a revision of the Methodist Home By-Laws. These revisions to be ratified by the patronizing annual conferences. (Full text of By-Laws Revision of 1978 have been placed in the hands of the Conference Secretary). The substantive change is as follows:

(The underlined phrase is the additional information) that needs to be added in order for us to comply with the Certification Council standards.

Article I, Section 1

"The purpose of Methodist Home is the charitable care and ministration for children residing within the bounds of the patronizing Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church. To carry out this purpose the Board of Directors shall have the authority and responsibility to develop and direct a program of child care which shall effectively meet the needs of the children served. This program may include institutional care, foster home care, adoption services, group homes services, residential treatment for emotionally disturbed children and youth, social services for children in their homes, and any other services which the Board of Directors shall deem appropriate in meeting the needs of children and youth. The program shall evidence its concern for persons of all religious, social, economic, cultural, racial, and ethnic groups in its constituent community and shall not discriminate in its policies of admission, program, and budget. The name of this corporation, its corporate purpose and terms of its existence are set forth in the restated Articles of Incorporation of this corporation as filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Texas, on the 13th day of May, 1968, as the same may from time to time be amended. All provisions of these By-Laws are subject to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation."

The Methodist Home Report No. 5

How Can Your Conference Help?

1. Continue the strong financial support for Methodist Home through the December Christmas offering. During this last quadrennium the Central Texas Conference has responded in a very positive manner to support the Methodist Home child care ministry with increased offering. Increased financial support through the December Christmas Offering is critical for Methodist Home. The Endowment Income and Christmas Offering have not kept pace with the inflation.
2. Awareness of complexity of caring for damaged children through district and local church involvement (visits, programs, and seminars).

3. Please place in the Annual Conference Calendar the following dates:

- a) ANNUAL METHODIST HOME COMMISSIONERS MEETING — October 15, 1980
- b) METHODIST HOME 90th YEAR CELEBRATION in the local churches, November 9, 1980
- c) METHODIST HOME OFFERING MONTH — DECEMBER

We are committed to excellence in the eighties as your representative in child care. It will be challenging, difficult and expensive. If you will help us, Methodist Home will produce excellence in the eighties.

Methodist Mission Home Report No. 1

Approved 6-3-80

The Methodist Mission Home provides services for young women pregnant out of wedlock, and vocational rehabilitation services for young adults with hearing impairments. The HOME also provides short and long term care for infant children and places infants for adoption in homes approved by the Social Work Staff.

The ministry at the Southwest Maternity Center includes counseling, medical care, room and board, provision for continuing education if in high school, and legal services when they desire to place their babies for adoption. The services expanded the past year through the satellite house in Odessa. Changing times has brought about the fact that over 50% of the placements for adoption were from non-resident young women who want adoptive planning through a licensed agency for their child, but do not need the services of the facility.

Services in Nacogdoches have been converted into a counseling center, whereby one of our Social Workers in that area can meet with the young women for counseling. Currently there is also counseling staff in Longview, Houston and Midland, and soon there will be Staff located in the Temple area.

The Maple Organization, composed of Adoptive Parents of the Methodist Mission Home, is a very important part of the life of the maternity and adoption program, helping with public relations across the State of Texas and New Mexico.

Services for clients at the Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired includes a residential individualized adult basic education program that helps train the clients in functional academic subjects and communication skills, vocational counseling and training, and ultimately job placement. Each client receives comprehensive vocational evaluation. It also includes personal social adjustment, medical care, as needed; and planned semi-independent living experiences.

The HOME continues to give consideration to those who cannot afford the normal costs. Work scholarships are available for maternity residents. Two grants which subsidized the hearing impaired program were not renewed, so the HOME will be calling more on the churches and soliciting funds/grants from foundations toward these vital programs. Adoptive fees are reduced for the hard to place child.

In 1979, the Southwest Maternity Center served 753 persons in a direct way: 137 children, 224 maternity clients, and 246 adoptive parents; and the Southwest Center for the Hearing Impaired had a total of 148 clients to participate in their program. Besides these directly served, there was a large number of family members of the hearing impaired clients that were involved.

The total resident days at the Methodist Mission Home during 1979 amounted to 29,083, with an average occupancy of 80 residents per day.

The total operating budget for the HOME in 1979 amounted to $1,457,071. The total Conference giving (seven Conferences) for 1979 was $170,936.10, and we commend the 105 churches in the Central Texas Conference that gave $15,197.13 of this amount. All churches are urged to include this vital work in their giving during the remainder of this Conference year.

Waco Inner City Ministry Report No. 1

With the support of the Central Texas Conference during 1979, Inner City Ministry continued its challenge of providing direct services and stimulating social concern throughout Waco and McLennan County. Our programs showed a significant increase in the number of persons served. These programs included:

1. MEALS ON WHEELS: 300 homebound elderly persons received hot noon meals three days a week in the Waco area. Hundreds of volunteers were utilized to cook and deliver these meals from twelve sites. Approximately 45,000 meals were served in 1979.
2. SENIOR LUNCH AND ACTIVITY PROGRAM: over 300 senior citizens in rural McLennan County participated daily in six senior centers located in West, Mart, Axtell, Moody, McGregor, and Crawford. The participants received hot lunches and took part in educational and recreational activities. Approximately 70,000 meals were served in this program in 1979.
3. SENIOR CITIZEN TRANSPORTATION: transportation was provided to 2,100 unduplicated riders each month in 1979. Rural McLennan County residents received rides to doctor's offices, grocery stores, utility offices, Social Security offices, and senior centers. The total number of rides provided in 1979 was approximately 21,600.
4. SUMMER YOUTH CAMP: Inner City Ministry co-sponsored with other agencies a day camp and a resident camp in the summer of 1979. An average of 621 inner city children in Waco participated daily in the day camp, and 250 children participated in the resident camp. Volunteer sewing groups coordinated by our agency provided clothing for these campers.

The financial support of Inner City Ministry by the Conference enabled these important programs to operate in 1979. The Board of Directors and Staff of Inner City Ministry pledge to continue this tradition of service and good stewardship of Conference resources.

Laura Edwards Christian Community Center Report No. 1

The Laura Edwards Christian Community Center in Waco is a child care center serving a predominately black residential area. It is licensed to serve 115 children from ages 2-12 and is opened from 6:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. to better serve the working parents. The children's fees are determined by a sliding scale based on family income and the number in a family. More than half live in the poverty income level.

The Center provides physical care and academic readiness preparation for the children in the preschool program and after school care for the older children. Along with daily health checks, dental, hearing, speech, and eye screening clinics are held yearly. Academic objectives are:

1. To expose the children to various ideas, values, materials, and knowledge outside of their environment.
2. To develop habits of observation.
3. To increase an awareness and an understanding of their emotions.
4. To develop skills that lend to self confidence.
5. To prepare the child for formal school.

The summer program includes tutoring in math and reading for the older children. All this is accomplished through the dedicated staff and volunteers under the leadership of Ms. Vera Morris, the executive director. Training sessions are held weekly for the teachers during the children's naptime.

A goal for the Center has been for the public to be more aware of the Laura Edwards Christian Community Center and the service it is providing for the community. This has been accomplished through the following activities this year. The Christmas program and spring operetta were on television. The cherub chorus and a slide presentation by volunteers from the Board provide programs for churches and civic groups. The Center sponsored an "Outstanding People in Waco Week" which not only taught children about community helpers, but also acquainted Waco people with the Center.

The Board of Directors is a working board with representatives from the community being served, the church, and the community at large. The increased Conference Grant from $5,000 to $7,500 for 1979 is greatly appreciated along with the advanced specials and the United Methodist Women's support. This helps provide scholarships for the children who are unable to pay the full fee. With your help we are training leaders of tomorrow.

Mrs. Robert Johnson, President
Board of Directors

Wesleyan Homes Report No.1

Received 6-2-80

This past year has been a good one in that a number of objectives have been achieved. We have reached a financial stability in our operations enabling us to direct our attention to strengthening, upgrading and expanding our service programs. Even though much was accomplished during this past year, much more remains to be done.

I would like to commend the staff of our homes because it is their efforts and devotion to their duty that makes our entire program successful. We would also express our appreciation to our board and to the people of the conference for their support of our Ministries. We pray that you will be diligent in spreading the word about the Wesleyan and encouraging people to take advantage of the services we offer. We have several vacancies in the Retirement Home that need to be filled.

Achievements:

1. In the area of finance, 1979 was our first year with our new budgeting system. I believe that it is safe to say that the Wesleyan Homes have now attained a stable and sound financial position.

2. Throughout the past year, we have continued to upgrade the two homes by using our own staff. We have a full maintenance program with competent staff. Special attention is being given to energy conservation with several projects completed. The buildings and grounds are continually being made more attractive.

3. During 1979 the Wesleyan Retirement Home served 112 persons while the Nursing Home has served 134. The Nursing Home is filled to capacity with a sizable waiting list. The Retirement Home has 86 residents at this time. We need your assistance in securing persons to fill the vacancies we have.

Review Of Goals And Objectives:

Day by day demands have prevented us from accomplishing goals which we set last year and had hoped to complete by this time. We hope to accomplish them in the near future.

Mr. Chris Spence, a graduate student in "long term care administration" from North Texas State University, has joined our staff on February 4th and will be doing a seven month internship at our two homes.

We have changed auditors and have contracted part of the bookkeeping out to an Austin firm.

The coming year again represents much work. Our staff has developed more capabilities this past year and we are continuing to grow professionally. Our reputation is the best and this reflects on the good quality of care giving by a dedicated and caring staff.

Wesleyan Homes Report No.2

Received 6-2-80

In the fall of 1978, I was appointed to become the Director of Ministry and Promotion for the Wesleyan Homes. Since that time I have been the Pastor to the lovely residents of both the Retirement Home and Nursing Home. I have conducted worship services each Wednesday evening at the Retirement Home and provided for the Wednesday morning devotional time. I have taught a Bible Study on Wednesdays and the Sunday School Class each Sunday at the Nursing Home. I have visited the sick in both homes and the hospitals. In the area of public relations, I have visited with the ministers and wives in every district, produced and distributed literature across the conference and promoted the Mother's Day offering for the Wesleyan. We have begun to edit and publish a magazine, "The Wesleyan Window" each quarter with a mailing list of about 6,000.

Many are the activities in ministry and promotion that space does not allow to be recorded here.

I come to the conclusion of some thirty-five years of membership in the conference with a feeling of joy and gratitude that the last year and a half of my active ministry has been at the Wesleyan.

An Agreement Of Trust Between
The New Church Growth And Development Program
And
The Metropolitan Board Of Missions Of Tarrant Co.

1. The Metropolitan Board stays in place, but with changes in function, funding, and staffing. Some of the changes will require amendments of the by-laws, but, as far as can presently be determined, no changes in the charter (Articles of Incorporation).
2. The Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Board would, by proper amendment of the by-laws, be made to include in its membership representation from District Committees on Church Development for the two Fort Worth districts, together with the present representation from district boards of church location and building.
3. The Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Board could then function as a bi-district agency for church development, much as it does presently, at the same time fitting the pattern of the new conference plan.
4. The conference director of church growth and development will consult regularly with the Metropolitan Board on matters related to church development, just as he/she will with District Committees on Church Development in the other districts.
5. The Metropolitan Board would have an executive secretary who would have administrative responsibilities along with responsibility for urban ministries. The Metropolitan Board will have the prerogative of selecting this person and setting the remuneration, in consultation with the presiding bishop.
6. For the remainder of 1980 the Metropolitan Board will retain its income sources and maintain its program commitments.
7. Beginning with the SHARE appeal early in 1981, the Metropolitan Board SHARES will be geared into the new conference-wide program. Every effort will be made to carry over into the conference program current Metropolitan Board SHARES.
8. From the Conference Commission's resources the Metropolitan Board will receive annually an amount sufficient to maintain an office, employ an executive secretary, and adequately fund urban ministries.
9. The Annual Conference will assume all the Metropolitan Board's current contingency obligations . . . i.e. become guarantor on church loans.
10. The conference will assume, on Jan. 1, 1981, all the Metropolitan Board's program commitments relating to new church development, including remaining indebtedness on properties, which, at that time, are being utilized in new church development.
11. The conference commission will assume responsibility for EMLC supplements and development.
12. Land which the Metropolitan Board owns as of Jan. 1, 1981, (presently this is five sites totaling almost 30 acres, not including portions of the Covenant and Barnabas properties to which the Board retains title) will be made available to the conference for future new church development.
13. There will be retained, as of Dec. 31, 1980, an operating reserve for the Metropolitan Board approximately equal to 6 months of the negotiated 1981 budget.

14. Grant moneys already approved by the CTC Board of Global Ministries for 1981 will be used for the purposes designated. Attempts will be made to retain National Division commitments to the new church in SE Fort Worth.
15. Permanent Fund interest earnings would come to the Metropolitan Board for general budget use.
16. Metropolitan Board funds now designated to the Executive Directors salary package not needed to cover the compensation of the Metropolitan Board executive secretary will be made available for application to the remuneration of the conference director of church growth and development for the period of June 1, 1980 thru Dec. 31, 1980.

An Agreement Of Trust Between
The New Church Growth And Development Program
And
The Inner-City Ministries Of Waco District

A similar agreement in principle shall prevail as that between the Commission on Church Growth and Development and the Metropolitan Board of Missions of Tarrant Co. as related to in-place ministries to the inner city of Waco, Texas.

Financial Support
Of The Church Growth And Development Program

The financial resources for the Church Growth and Development Program will be generated by two sources:

- I. A Conference-wide apportionment of $200,000 to be distributed in the same manner as other conference apportionments.

It should be noted that this is not all "new money." The Fort Worth districts are already contributing $74,000 which will be converted to this program. Therefore, the new fund will create $126,000 in new resources.

- II. A Conference-wide SHARE PROGRAM:

The ultimate goal of the program is to secure a total of 10,000 SHARES. The goal will be based upon a ratio of one share for every twelve (12) members in the local church. Each share will represent an annual financial commitment of FORTY-FIVE dollars, payable in three equal installments or in one payment.

Existing share programs in the respective districts of the conference will be converted to the new program. Each current shareholder will be contacted relative to their permission to make this conversion.

Report No. 3

Approved 6-3-80

Introduction

During the 1978 session of the Central Texas Conference the Research and Planning Committee asked lay and clergy members of the conference to indicate by use of a questionnaire the issues which they felt most needful of the attention of the annual conference. Those who responded identified five areas of concern: (1) STRENGTHENING OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL/TEACHER TRAINING; (2) MEMBERSHIP RECRUITMENT/REACTIVATION OF THE INACTIVE; (3) STRENGTHENING OF WORSHIP/STRENGTHENING OF PREACHING; (4) STRENGTHENING OF SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT/STEWARDSHIP; (5) LOCAL MISSIONS.

Since the completion of that questionnaire more than 800 persons have spent in excess of 2300 hours and an incalculable number of hours of travel in an effort to make an adequate response to those five areas of critical need.

This report is the fruits of our labors and presented in hopes that it represents a challenge and stimulus for all of us.

To the 800 persons who labored faithfully, the members of the Committee on Research and Planning, the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Conference Staff, Matt Brown, our consultant, and the Strategic Planning Committee, a hearty THANK YOU for your time, energy, and commitment to Christ which has prompted you to give so freely and willingly of yourselves.

Respectfully submitted,
Don M. Pike
Chairperson
Strategic Planning Comm.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Report No. 1

Adopted 6-3-80

One area of the church's responsibility that is among the most deficient is the area of pensions. It is no credit to our great church and this Central Texas Conference in particular that current provision for retired ministers, widows and survivors is less than the nationally accepted poverty level. No person should be expected to exist on the current $100 per service year. The rate is in no way consistent with the cost of living.

Fortunately we are showing signs of "a light at the end of the tunnel." The Board optimistically projects an increase of fifteen percent in the annuity rate for 1981. We recommend the rate be set at $115 for each service year.

Another good sign is a proposed new plan of pensions being proposed by the General Board of Pensions. If approved by the General Conference and ratified by the various conferences, it will see all future years funded at not less than $155 per service year.

As we conclude this quadrennium, we are proud of progress made. Four years ago the annuity rate was $85 with dismal prospects for any great raise. Thanks to an increased awareness on the part of the conference, the Capital Funds Campaign and some other factors, this period has seen the greatest increase in the rate in our conference history.

The Capital Funds drive receipts have reached the $1,100,000 mark with a bit more than a year to go. Hopefully the remaining $400,000 will be in by the end of the period projected at the beginning of the effort, the fall of 1981.

As we report this conference, some of us who have given a service of love to the pension program of the conference will be leaving that responsibility. To all who leave the Board, and especially to J. W. Sprinkle, I would express praise and gratitude. Dr. Sprinkle has done a tremendous job in this area and the conference ministry will be forever grateful.

BOARD OF LAY CONCERNS

Report No. 1

Recommendations

Adopted 6-3-80

The Conference Commission for Lay Concerns recommends:

1. The by-laws and organizational pattern of the Conference and District Commissions for Lay Concerns be altered as reflected by the attached document.
2. The United Methodist Men's organization on conference and district levels become autonomous of the commission and report directly to the Annual Conference with relationships to the commissions and the conference Board of Discipleship.
3. The conference committee on nominations nominate an interim conference president of United Methodist Men to serve during the organizational period, (1980-81) with the goal of electing a president in June 1981.
4. The district committee on nominations nominate an interim district president of United Methodist Men to serve during the organizational period, (1980-81) with the goal of electing a president at the district conference in May 1981.
5. The conference lay leader call the conference and district United Methodist Men presidents together for an organizational meeting as soon after they have been selected as possible.
6. This organizational process; in so far as possible, be funded from the Conference Commission for Lay Concerns budget.

Rationale:

1. The Council on Ministry of the conference and the districts are responsible for the areas of concern dealt with when the commissions were structured in 1972. This new structure will provide for the leadership development of the laity and reduce the size of the organization to make it more functional and economical.
2. The United Methodist Men's organization can be a viable part of the churches' ministry but needs to move out on its own. It has been a part of the board of laity and Commission for Lay Concerns for many years without success.

HOMES FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

Report No. 1

Adopted 6-3-80

Your Homes for Retired Ministers has completed another year service as it has done since 1906. We still have 30 homes with 28 of them occupied.

Each home has been acquired by the conference with the understanding that it would be kept in liveable repair. Insurance and taxes must be paid. To provide funds for these expenditures a special offering is received in the churches each year. Our special offering this year will be received in September. The special offering this year amounted to $11,286.09 for which we are very grateful.

For the past five years the residents of the homes have been contributing monthly to our program and are taking care of all minor repairs on their residence. Their gifts this past year amounted to $7428.38. Their support has helped tremendously. The conference may be interested to know that the following amounts were spent for:

Insurance	$2758.00
Ad valorem taxes	5529.31
Repairs	3658.21

Last year your Trustees announced that a MEMORIAL ENDOWMENT FUND had been created. We feel that many persons would contribute to this fund if the opportunity was made known to the members of our churches. If you have questions about or are interested in contributing to our Memorial Fund write Ray Elliott, Drawer C, Meridian, Texas 76665.

CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Accepted 6-4-80

The Conference Credit Union is alive and doing well. While the inflation seems to have been adversely affecting the Credit Union for some time, we feel that now the Credit Union position is beginning to strengthen. We still offer the benefits of automatic loan insurance without charge, and automatic life insurance on share deposits up to $2,000. All deposits are insured for the maximum accorded by Federal law.

Our current assets are $612,623. Our loans are $552,440. Since the Credit Union was organized we have had to charge off only $7,255 in loan losses and we still hope to recover some of that. We currently have 700 members and continue to show membership growth.

We urge each eligible person to seriously consider paying the \$5.25 membership fee and begin a systematic savings program. We pay the best rate of interest available for this type of account. We also have a Share Certificate available at $\frac{1}{4}\%$ above the current rate paid by the Savings and Loan Companies. As the Money-Market sales continue to come down, we encourage you to look to your Credit Union as an investing place.

We also serve our members with one of the best rates of interest available anywhere on secured or signature loans.

We commend our Executive Secretary, Dr. J. W. SPRINKLE, for the fine work he has done. He will be continuing in this capacity with the Credit Union.

The Credit Union Address is: P.O. Box 8552, Fort Worth, Texas 76112.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Report No. 1

Approved 6-4-80

1. The members of the Council on Finance and Administration once again thank the leaders and the members of the Conference for maintaining the standard of meeting all our obligations 100% in 1979. This year we are presenting for your approval a budget that represents a challenge for the new quadrennium.
2. The Salary allowances for the District Superintendency shall be an amount equal to 110% of the average of the salary and allowances paid to pastors of the top twenty (20) churches of the Conference. It shall be computed on the basis of salaries approved by Charge Conference which appear on the Episcopal work sheets as of April 1 prior to the meeting of the Annual Conference. The figures will be compiled by the Director of Professional Services and transmitted to the Chairman of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Conference Secretary-Treasurer within five days.

The salary includes a travel allowance of $3,600.00, a housing allowance of $2,000.00. The money requested by the General Bd. of Pensions for all ministers under appointment with annuity is added to the above figure.

Other conference offices with a Dist. Supt. status are set in the same manner. However the Director of Church Growth and Development is to have for the first year a travel allowance that is to be paid on voucher at the mileage rate set by the Conference.

The Council recommends to the Annual Conference that district committees on finance be authorized to draw up district budgets for presentation to the District Stewards for office operations and to travel allowances, provided the budgets will be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration for approval if the total increase of the district fund exceeds 10% of the previous year's budget.

We recommend that District Stewards be authorized to apportion a Connectional Contingency Fund used in paying in full apportionment items which may fall short within the respective district. The apportionments will not include the traditional cushions. The Connectional Contingency Fund will be administered at the district level in the same means as the District Work Fund. It is understood that if a portion of the Connectional Contingency Fund is not used in any given year, it will remain in the fund and future apportionments will be reduced. Any adjustments for unusual local church situations will be made in the apportionment of the Connectional Contingency Fund only. All other apportionments will be distributed to every local church on the basis of the decimal.

We recommend the unified form agreed upon by the Cabinet for reporting district budgets.

3. In 1981 the Conference Claimants Fund is to be set at $640,000.00. This covers all costs and expenses for the support of all obligations to the Retired Ministers, their wives and dependent children.

In 1981 the Connectional Ministers Fund will be $273,141.00. Of that amount, the Episcopal Fund is $54,496.00, and the District Superintendents Fund will be $218,600.00.

4. The Council recommends the request from the Board of Higher Education and Ministry that the Texas Methodist College Association apportionment remain at $1.50 per member. The Council recommends the Wesley Foundation Fund remain 93¢ per member. These funds to be apportioned to districts and local churches on the decimal authorized by the conference.
5. The Council on Finance and Administration requests the following for 1981:

1. Conference Insurance Program	$190,000
2. Texas Methodist College Association. . .	183,573
3. Wesley Foundation	113,714
4. Ministerial Education Fund	150,308
5. Black Methodist Colleges.	73,658
6. Missional Priority	57,366
7. Commission on Ch. Growth & Dev.	200,000
8. Lydia Patterson Institute.	19,435
9. Southern Methodist University	30,000
6. We recommend that the Equitable Salary Fund be drawn from monies deposited with the Texas Methodist Foundation.
7. We recommend that the funds distributed to the Board of Global Ministries from the Central Texas Foundation be retained in the Foundation in order to build up the corpus. The amount of $29,000 will be placed in the Board's budget by the Conference.
8. We recommend that a $20,000 figure be placed in the budget of the Board of Discipleship Camp Committee for Glen Lake Camp. We encourage every local church to emphasize the Glen Lake Special Offering in March.
9. We encourage the support of the Advance Specials Program in every local church. Especially, we ask consideration for the goal of $62,200.00 annually for Ethnic Minority Local Church and $33,600.00 for the World Hunger Program.
10. We recommend the appointment of Dr. Wm. Greenwaldt as Secretary-Treasurer of the Central Texas Conference.

2. While no special day is designated for an offering for the Texas Alcohol-Narcotics Education, Inc., we approve this special cause for either an appropriation from the budget in the local church, or a special offering taken at such time as the local church determines.
3. In keeping with the requirements of the Discipline, the apportionments for World Service and Conference Benevolences will be combined into one fund, namely, World Service and Conference Benevolences. This fund, along with Connectional Ministry, Conference Claimant's Fund, Conference Projects, Minister's Insurance, Texas Methodist College Association, Wesley Foundation, Ministerial Education Fund, Black Methodist College Fund, Missional Priority Fund, Commission on Church Growth and Development, Lydia Patterson, Southern Methodist University, will be apportioned to the Districts on the decimal figure, established annually, as authorized in the Standing Rules of the Conference.

4. The Conference Treasurer is authorized to distribute each month the receipts from local churches for World Service and Conference Benevolences among the funds included in the annual budget of the conference in proportion to their apportionments. Any deficit in remittances from the churches will be covered by payments from the Operating Reserve, upon approval by CFA.
5. All boards, commissions and other agencies shall have prepared in writing their detailed budget requests for the ensuing fiscal year by a date mutually agreed upon and announced by CFA and ACCOM. The program agencies shall present their requests to the Committee on Coordination and Budget by said date. The non-program agencies shall present their requests to the CFA by the same date. One copy of all budgets must be sent to the CFA Chairperson, Treasurer and Council Director. Requests will not be considered if received past the due date unless time extension has been requested.
6. No board or agency of the Central Texas Conference shall expend any money for any purpose which has not been included in the original budget, as amended and approved by CFA and the Conference and printed in the current Journal. Exceptions to this rule can only be made by CFA or its executive committee.
7. The fiscal year of all boards, commissions and other agencies operating through the Central Treasury shall begin January 1 and close on December 31.
8. The Conference Treasurer is authorized to pay from the Operating Reserve the following items:
 - a. Expenses of printing the Journal, which may exceed budget appropriation.
 - b. Expenses of the Conference Secretarial Staff.
 - c. Expense of Fidelity Bonds for the Conference Treasurer and others who handle Conference Funds, as determined by CFA.
 - d. Expenses of auditing the books of the Conference Treasurer, the treasurers of Boards, commissions and other agencies of the Conference as may be ordered by CFA. Such audits are to be made by the Conference auditors, the firm of Wilson and Plenson, C.P.A.
 - e. The moving expense of ministers of the Conference as described in the 1973 minutes of the Conference Journal, Page 129. When the next Annual Budget is prepared the CFA is authorized to place the total amount in the budget to repay the Operating Reserve for past year spending.
 - f. Other expenditures as may be authorized by CFA. Such expenditures not to exceed $500 may be authorized by the Executive Committee of the Council.
9. The Conference Treasurer is authorized:
 - a. To consolidate the various funds of the Annual Conference and of the agencies into one or more bank accounts.
 - b. To write all checks for the agencies of the Conference upon requisition by authorized officers of the agency and in keeping with the approved Conference Budget. He is also authorized to transmit to the authorized treasurers all other funds that are raised by the local churches in response to General, Jurisdictional and Annual Conference askings that have been approved by the appropriate body.
 - c. The Conference Treasurer, after the close of the fiscal year, shall transfer from the accounts of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the Conference into the Operating Reserve all unexpended balances of the annual appropriations for the year just closed (excepting only items specifically exempt by CFA) making allowances for all outstanding checks. This procedure is recommended with the understanding that the Conference Treasurer will honor the requisitions for all - necessary expenses of the new fiscal year within the limits of the appropriations.

- d. To invest the funds of the conference in Government Securities and Federally insured depositories up to and not exceeding insurability, and to borrow on and dispose of investments at or, prior to, maturity, and to deposit the proceeds from these investments in accounts of the Conference at his discretion and under the guidance of CFA.
 - e. To deposit funds for specifically designated purposes in federally insured depositories under the joint control of the Central Treasury and the agency concerned, with the approval of the Executive Committee of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COURTESY AND RESOLUTIONS

Accepted 6-4-80

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
We've heard at TWC
We sing our thanks to the First Church
And graceful old Poly.

'Twas grace that brought our souls to hear
A man like Harrell Beck
His gracenotes fell on hungry hearts,
Our preaching must be heck.

Through eight long years of toil and work
The Stowes have really come
We love them much and tell them true
With us they are at home.

Reports have promised good to me
Their words our hope secure
Get out your checkbook folks at home
There's no way it can be free.

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
The work of this great conference
May finally all be done.

Oran Stephens

Oran Stephens was born July 1, 1901 in Erath County, Texas. He was married to Ora Mae Moss November 24, 1921, and to them one son, Bill, was born. Ora Mae died August 28, 1976.

Oran was engaged in Banking at Waxahachie, Texas when he obeyed God's Call into Christian Ministry. Educated in Trinity University, Waxahachie, he was honored with a Doctor of Divinity degree from Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth. He was first admitted to the Central Texas Conference On Trial in 1927, was ordained Deacon in 1929 and Elder in 1931. Because of poor health he retired in 1960 after a distinguished Ministry in the following appointments: Waxahachie Circuit, Eddy, Red Oak, Italy, Midlothian, 1st Cleburne, 1st Georgetown, Arlington Heights and Central (Overton Park) Fort Worth and District Superintendent of the Cisco, Waco and Gatesville districts.

Oran Stephens was a genuine man — a redeemed man — God's man — a human being — who by impeccable integrity, indefatigable energy, resolute purpose, unceasing work, unending endurance, indomitable courage and dynamic leadership gave service to God, The Church and human beings which was rich, fruitful, deep, abiding. He and Ora Mae will continue to serve through the Oran and Ora Mae Stephens Scholarship Fund for worthy lay and clergy students at Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

After retirement in 1960, Oran and Ora Mae moved to Dallas and were devoted disciples in the Oak Cliff United Methodist Church as long as health permitted. Following a long illness, he entered The Church Triumphant on July 12, 1979. A Memorial Service was held at Boze-Mitchell Chapel, Waxahachie by his pastor, Marvin C. Bledsoe, Carl P. Mehaffy, Jr. and Maggart B. Howell. Burial was in City Cemetery, Waxahachie.

He is survived by: a son and wife, B. J. and Mary Stephens, Dallas; one brother, Dr.

Walter C. Stephens, Truth or Consequences, New Mexico; two Grandsons and wives, Gary R. and Patsy, Dallas, Billy C. and Susan, Garland; Great Grandchildren Shelli, Bryan, Chris, Michael and Bradley.

Maggart B. Howell

Joseph Isham Patterson

Joseph Isham Patterson was born on February 2, 1894 in Nettleton, Lee County, Mississippi. He was the first son of Mary Frances Redwine and Columbus Washington Patterson.

"Joseph," was about twelve years old when his family came to Texas, and he was educated in the DeLeon Public Schools where he was graduated from high school in 1911. He was a good student and showed a particular aptitude for mathematics, but it was necessary for him to work to assist his family. Upon the untimely death of his father at age 52 in the 1915 Flu Epidemic, he secured a job teaching high school in Rising Star, Texas. After two years of teaching, he entered Old Polytechnic College in Fort Worth and later transferred to SMU where he studied until he joined the Air Corps of the Armed Services in November, 1917.

In 1918 when the armistice was signed, he was in the Field Artillery Officers Training School, and he was discharged one month later. After his discharge he returned to SMU where he graduated in 1922 with a B.A. Degree and a Bachelor of Divinity Degree from the Theology School. While at SMU he was a good student and participated in student activities including athletics. He was a three-year letterman on the Mustang Football Team.

In 1923 he received a Master's Degree in Religious Education from Columbia University in New York.

In 1926 he received a Master's Degree in Sociology from the University of Virginia. While there he met his wife-to-be, Caroline Anderson White, of Anchorage Farm, Albermarle County, Virginia. He was serving as Pastor to several rural churches and attending the University of Virginia when they met. They were married at her home in 1926 and immediately returned to Texas where he began his active ministry in the Central Texas Conference of the Methodist Church.

During his 40 years of active ministry in the Central Texas Conference, he served as Pastor in Corsicana, Bynum, Maypearl, Santa Anna, Stephenville, Hillsboro, Cisco, Fort Worth Meadowbrook, Graham, Mexia, Olney, Seventh Street, Temple, and finally Fort Worth Boulevard.

He retired from the active ministry in 1963, and he and his wife moved to Fort Worth Meadowbrook Area where he became Minister of Visitation at Meadowbrook Methodist Church. He served in this capacity until approximately two years before his death.

On August 4, 1979, while at home, he fell and thereafter developed pneumonia, necessitating his being hospitalized, first at Harris Hospital-Methodist in Fort Worth and then subsequently the Veterans Administration Hospital in Dallas. He died on Sunday morning, September 9, 1979 just three days after he had become a resident of the C. C. Young Memorial Home, a Methodist facility, in Dallas. He was 85 years old.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years and three sons, Joseph Redwine Patterson, of Dallas; James White Patterson, of Austin; and Julian Culver Patterson of Temple. He is also survived by seven grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Bagwell and Mrs. Russell Rice, both of DeLeon, and by eleven nieces and nephews.

In the vigor of his youth, he was six feet tall and weighted approximately 175 lbs. He was an active person all his life and enjoyed his work as a Methodist Minister. He was fortunate in knowing from an early age that he wanted to be a Methodist Preacher, and he fulfilled this ambition throughout all his adult life.

He was a dedicated Christian who believed in the integrity of the Methodist Church and its service to people. He tried very hard to practice what he tried very hard to preach and that was integrity.

He and his wife never met a stranger and called everyone a friend.

In a sentence summation of his life, it can be said HE WAS A GOOD MAN!

Memorial services were conducted at the Meadowbrook United Methodist Church on September 11 at 10:30 a.m. Reverend Bob F. Weathers, Dr. T. Morgan Garrett and Reverend Hubert L. Austin were the officiating ministers. Services were also conducted at 2:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in DeLeon, Texas with Reverend Bob F. Weathers and the Reverend Charles McClure officiating. Interment followed in the DeLeon Cemetery.

He answered the call to preach in 1923 and entered Southwestern University, graduating three years later with high honors.

The Standlees served a number of pastorates in the Central Texas Conference: Hutto, Pioneer, Crawford, Bruceville, Mt. Calm, Mertens, Maypearl, Line Street in Hillsboro, Missouri Avenue and St. John in Fort Worth, Azle, Itasca and Valley Mills.

He also served on several Annual Conference Agencies including the statistical staff.

The Reverend Standlee was a life member of the Masonic Lodge.

Following retirement the Standlees lived in Fort Worth and Reverend Standlee served as Associate Pastor of the Arlington Heights Church and taught a Sunday School Class there for 17 years. When his health began to fail they moved to their son's home in Burleson for a short while and then to the Wesleyan Retirement Home in Georgetown in January, 1979.

A. G. Standlee was able to relate to younger ministers in an unique way. His friendship and encouragement have helped many of them. He had a great love and concern for people and gave himself in ministry to their needs. He was a good husband and father. We give thanks and praise to God for his life and ministry. He was one of God's good men and he allowed God to use him in a wonderful way.

Walter William Ward

Walter William Ward was born June 7, 1887 in the Vaughn Community near Hillsboro, Texas. He married Miss Ruby Henrichsen. Into his family, two children were born, Elizabeth Ann, now Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Curry, of Atlanta, Georgia, and Eugene Spooner Ward of Dallas, Texas.

He received his B.A. Degree from Southwestern University and his B. D. Degree from S.M.U. He was awarded two honorary doctorate degrees, a Doctor of Divinity Degree given in 1935 by Southwestern University and a Doctor of Law Degree from T.C.U. in 1969.

Dr. Ward loved the Methodist Church which in turn honored in almost every possible way except that of electing him to office of Bishop. He was elected a delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Church in the years 1934 and 1938, and to the Uniting Conference in 1939 and 1944. He was elected a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conferences of 1938, 1940 and 1944. He served as District Superintendent of the Waco District for 4 years and of the Ft. Worth District for 6 years. In his 20 years of ministry, Rev. Ward had gained an enviable reputation as a church builder. At Lorena, he built a church education building; at Ferris, a church; at Arlington Heights in Ft. Worth, a building which was used as the sanctuary for 22 years, and at Gatesville, an education building and a remodeled auditorium. His business ability was recognized by S.M.U. when he was elected a trustee of that institution, a position he ably held for 27 years.

In 1950, Dr. Ward recalls, "a rich experience in my life" occurred when the Bishop appointed him Harris Hospital Chaplain and Commissioner. For 23 years, Dr. Ward's name was synonymous with that of Harris Hospital in Ft. Worth. He very capably served the hospital for 9 years as Chaplain and Commissioner. As Chaplain of Harris Hospital, Dr. Ward accomplished many goals, one of them being that he was instrumental in raising all the money necessary to build the new nurses dormitory for the hospital. Not wanting to lose such a wonderful leader, the hospital appointed Dr. Ward as Director of Public Relations in 1959. He retained that post for one year until the hospital employed him for yet another position, that of trustee to raise money to help in the education of student nurses. In this capacity, he served for 13 years, resigning in 1973, at the age of 86 years. During that 13 year period, Dr. Ward led in raising enough money to fully finance 648 student nurses and, in addition, left an endowment fund of more than $375,000 for the same purpose, a fact of which he was very proud. For this achievement, Dr. Ward was honored by the hospital board of trustees by their naming this fund the "W. W. Ward Endowment Fund of Harris Hospital."

Dr. Ward is best described by the words of commendation from T.C.U. when he was given a Doctor of Law Degree,

"He is a servant of God and man, one who has responded to every call, achieved in every opportunity, enlarged the service of every task, and whose concept of Christian ministry is to work while strength still comes and to praise while breath still is given."

Those who knew Dr. Ward would join me in saying,
 "There was a man sent from God whose name was Walter."

Reverend Henry Martin Hopkins

The last sermon preached by The Reverend H. M. Hopkins was titled "His Father's Business." The sermon was preached at the Carter Park United Methodist Church, Fort Worth, Texas on the occasion of Brother Hopkins' ninety-fifth (95th) birthday celebration. That title, "His Father's Business" emulates what his life had been about.

He was born in Oldenburg, Germany on April 17, 1885. However, he was an instant American citizen because his father had already come to the United States. Having German parents, and growing up in a German-speaking community enabled young Hopkins to become a bilingual student. That fact greatly influenced his early ministry.

His early years in the ministry were in German-speaking Methodist Churches. Only five years after leaving Blinn Memorial College at Brenham, Texas, he returned to be the Pastor of the Church there. Several members of his congregation had been his professors when he had been in college.

He said, "I was reared a country boy and thought I would always be a country preacher." However, God had other places for Brother Hopkins to serve His people. He was pastor in Brenham, Itasca, Rosenberg, Sealy, Dallas, Houston, New Orleans, Waco, and Fort Worth. He retired from the active ministry in 1957. His ministry did not end however. He attended the Oakhurst United Methodist Church and was a very active member of the Mizpah Sunday School Class there.

One of his favorite passages of scripture was the 103 Psalms, which begins, "Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name." Indeed God did make him happy and Brother Hopkins was always a blessing to the people in the congregations where he served.

On May 28, 1980, he died in the same manner in which he lived — victoriously! A service of tribute and celebration was held at the Oakhurst United Methodist Church on May 30, 1980. Officiating were Gene Chamness and Dr. Don W. Waddell.

Dixie Beryl Friend Chisholm

Dixie Beryl Friend Chisholm was born in Proctor, Texas, October 15, 1893. She was reared in Comanche County and received her public education in the Proctor public schools. She was a graduate of the Scott and White School of Nursing, Temple, Texas, and practiced nursing in the city-county hospital in Fort Worth for several years.

In 1917, in Hamlin, Texas, she married Donald A. Chisholm, a Methodist minister. Together they served their Lord faithfully as the parsonage family for several Central Texas communities including 11th Avenue in Corsicana, Hubbard, Groesbeck, Belton, Central in Brownwood, First Methodist in Waxahachie, Mineral Wells, District Superintendent in Corsicana, Herring Avenue in Waco, and retired from Riverside in Fort Worth.

The Chisholms were the parents of three children: Donald Chisholm, Jr., Capt. James A. Chisholm, both of which preceded their mother in death, and a daughter, Mrs. Pat (Jessie) Boze who resides at 116 Chapman Circle in Waxahachie, Texas. Her husband likewise preceded her in death, on May 1, 1972, at their home in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Chisholm died June 12, 1979, residing at that time with her daughter in Waxahachie where she was a member of the First United Methodist Church. Funeral services were conducted June 14, 1979, in the Memorial Chapel of the Boze-Mitchell Funeral Home in Waxahachie. Rev. Robert Richmond, pastor, First United Methodist Church, Waxahachie, and Dr. Don Pike, District Superintendent of the Waxahachie District, presided over the memorial service. Graveside services were conducted that afternoon at the Proctor Cemetery with Rev. A. J. Wormwood, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Dublin officiating.

Dixie loved Christ and His Church and she loved everyone who made it up — the laity and the clergy. She loved to serve them all and be with them. Now she is with Christ.

Funeral services were held Jan. 3, 1980, for Elma Morgan, 92, at the First United Methodist Church in Arlington.

Miss Elma, of 403 S. Mesquite in Arlington, died on New Year's Day at Arlington Memorial Hospital after an intestinal illness.

Her work included organizing day-care centers and prenatal training for expectant mothers in the 1920s, long before such programs were common in America.

Her efforts through the years brought her recognition as the outstanding senior citizen in Arlington for 1971.

Like Mother Teresa, Miss Elma had little desire for worldly goods and contributed much of her own money to her missionary work. She once told Dr. Jack Payne, her pastor for the last 13 years, "Every time I give a dollar away, I get a dollar from God in return."

A native of Stephens, Ark., Miss Elma received her bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas and then completed her master's degree in religious education at Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn.

After completing her education, she worked as a missionary in Brazil from 1915 to 1920. She returned to Brazil in 1921, but was forced to return to the United States because of ill health. After a short period of convalescence, she was assigned to national missions.

Miss Elma's specialty was organizing new missions. Her work took her to Oklahoma City, Tampa, Fla., San Antonio, San Marcos, Texas, Houston and Dallas.

She first came to Dallas in the 1920s and helped set up the Wesley House in the "Little Mexico" section of West Dallas. At the house, she arranged free dental care for girls who could not afford such treatment, taught household skills, and provided vocational training for boys.

Officially she retired in 1952, but "She never stopped being a missionary."

She is not survived by any immediate family, but, "Everyone was her family."

Beyond that the Conference will add one dollar of supplement for each one dollar the local church increases the local pastor's salary up to the minimum salary set by the Conference.
4. In addition to the above schedule and above limitation of aid, seminary students who are serving pastoral charges and receiving Equitable Salary Supplements, may receive $1.00 per mile, one way, one time per year, for the distance from the seminary to the pastoral charge. This extra allowance shall be computed by the Commission, and paid in one payment to the seminary student pastor serving the charge at the end of the third quarter of the Conference year.

7. In cases of appointments, or changes of appointments, between the sessions of the Annual Conference, all above requirements are applicable and the District Superintendent shall file a new application for each charge concerned. Such salary supplements, if approved, shall be paid on a pro rata basis for the part of the year actually served.
8. The District Superintendents shall be responsible for making the program effective in their respective districts, as in all other causes of the Church, and for the collection of the amounts apportioned to the churches in their respective districts and for the rearrangement of pastoral charges, as necessary, to provide that the salary for the pastor to be paid by the charges be not less than $1,800.00 per year.
9. Payments on the apportionment of the Churches shall be made at least quarterly to the Treasurer of the Annual Conference. The Commission shall make payments to those receiving the benefits of the Fund at the end of the first three quarters of the Conference year, namely, September 1, December 1, March 1, and payments for the fourth quarter of the year ending May 31st, shall be made on May 15th. All of these quarterly payments shall be made on the same percentage basis as that of which the funds shall come to the hands of the Conference Treasurer, without discrimination in any case, and if receipts of funds by the Conference Treasurer prior to the session of the Annual Conference are not sufficient to meet all commitments, the final settlement for the year shall be made after all remittances have been made to the Conference Treasurer.

10. A complete financial statement shall be made at each session of the Annual Conference, showing all receipts from the Conference Treasurer during the year, all payments of those receiving the benefits of the Fund, and for all other purposes. This exhibit of receipts and disbursements shall be published each year in the Conference Journal.

Expenses for work of the Commission, such as stationery, stamps, office supplies, necessary clerical work, etc., shall be allowed from the Fund, and the traveling expenses of the members of the Commission, together with the cost of meals enroute, to all meetings of the Commission except such as are held while the Annual Conference is in session shall be allowed. Traveling expenses shall be paid in accordance with the Standing Rules of the Annual Conference.

Three-fourths of the amount normally payable to those receiving the benefits of the Fund shall be allowed until the meeting of the Commission prior to the session of the Annual Conference, at which time if a sufficient amount of money has been realized from the apportionment, payments for the fourth quarter shall be made not later than May 15th of each year.

Emergency aid shall be limited to those whose total income does not exceed the minimum salary for their classification, and the amount granted shall not exceed ten (10) per cent of their classification.

Committee On Sustentation

Report No. 1

OPERATIONAL PROCEDURE FOR SUSTENTATION

Plan of Operation

1. There shall be a program of sustentation in the Central Texas Conference under the direction and management of the Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions.
This committee will have charge of and promote all the interests of the Sustentation program and shall be the determining factor in the final approval of any candidate for participation in this program.
2. We recommend that the amount of sustentation granted to an applicant shall be the amount of the current minimum salary.
3. We recommend further that the following shall be eligible for participation:
 1. All ministers of the Central Texas Conference who have been admitted on trial, or have been received into full connection, provided they have not reached the age of voluntary retirement, which is sixty-five (65) years of age.
 2. An approved supply pastor who shall have rendered not less than ten (10) years of full-time approved service as pastor of a charge in the Central Texas Conference.
 3. Any Minister, meeting the above requirements, who is relieved of his pastoral duties and granted a leave of absence from his charge by the Bishop and Cabinet any Conference year for physical or psychological reasons shall be eligible for sustentation for the portion of the year that remains until the next meeting of the Annual Conference.
4. We recommend the following procedure:
 1. The applicant shall make his desire known, in writing, to the Committee on Sustentation.
 2. The applicant must submit to a complete examination of the Clinic of The Harris Hospital in Fort Worth, Texas and the Certificate of Disability must be completed by the examining physician. Emphasis shall be placed upon question number eight (8) of the Certificate of Disability which asks: "Do you unreservedly feel that one year leave of absence would be conducive to restoration of health so that the claimant might continue in an effective ministry?"
 3. In extreme emergencies, the Committee will consider the diagnosis and recommendations of a duly qualified physician, but not the claimant's personal physician.
 4. When the applicant is approved by the Committee, the name of the applicant shall be submitted to the Committee on Conference Relations with a request that a leave of absence be granted for a period of one year. With the approval of the Committee on Conference Relations and the favorable action of the Annual Conference, the applicant shall be eligible for the benefits of this program.
 5. We unreservedly recommend that no person be eligible for sustentation funds for a period exceeding twelve (12) months running consecutively.
 6. All payments shall be made to the claimant monthly.
5. We recommend the following financial plan:
 1. The Committee shall be given authority to draw upon the Operating Reserve Fund of the Central Texas Conference such amounts as are necessary during any given Conference Year to meet the needs of the applicants in accordance with the above suggested practice.

2. After the amount expended during a Conference Year has been determined, the Committee on Sustentation will make a request to the Council on Finance and Administration for the inclusion of that amount in the Conference Budget for the ensuing year. This procedure will be most practical for there is no way to actually determine the full amount which will be needed in any Conference Year, and if the plan is followed, there will be no possibility of having surplus or deficiencies in the money available for the Sustentation Committee.

STATEMENT OF CASH RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1979

TOGETHER WITH AUDITOR'S REPORT

WILSON, HANSEN & CLAY
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

March 7, 1980

Members of the Commission on World Service and Finance
CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE of the UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Fort Worth, Texas

We have examined the Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements of Dr. J. W. Sprinkle, Secretary-Treasurer, Central Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, for the year ended December 31, 1979. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Central Texas Conference's policy is to prepare this summary on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statement is not intended to present results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, since such accounting principles require the accrual of income and expenses.

The Supplementary Information included in this report is presented for information only, since the status of these items are of interest to the readers of this report in conjunction with the various funds to which they are related. However, the scope of our examination was limited to a review on auditing procedures with regard to the Supplementary Information except to confirm the balances shown.

In our opinion, the accompanying Summary of Cash Receipts and Disbursements referred to above present fairly the recorded cash receipts and disbursements of the Conference Treasurer for the year then ended, on the basis described in Note 1, which basis has been applied in a manner consistent with that of the preceding year.
